Marry at Lovely Home Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Anderson.

Miss Jenone Mahn of Eugene became the bride of Leonard T. Anderson, son of Mrs. Emelia Larson of Eugene and Theodore Anderson of Melrose December 7 at the home of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Justice of the Peace and Mrs. Thomas C. Hartfield, at Winchester. Judge Hartfield performed the impressive ceremony at eight-thirty o'clock.

Fine pink chrysanthemums and tall white tapers formed a pretty setting for the wedding. The wedding music included "Oh Promise Me" and "At Dawning."

The bride was lovely in a light grey wool suit with pale pink and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Ruth Anderson of Eugene was matron of honor and wore a chocolate brown and gold afternoon dress with matching brown hat and a corsage of pale pink carnations. Leland Anderson acted as best man to his brother.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue suit with white pin-stripe and a corsage of pale pink carnations.

Following the wedding, a reception was held and a supper was served to the bridal party and a few close friends of the bride and groom. Miss Hartfield, the bride's cousin, acted as toastmaster. The bride and groom were accompanied by the bridegroom's mother and the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister.

Following a honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home to their friends at 589 Wood Avenue, Eugene.

The bride was graduated from Woodbury College in Los Angeles. The bridegroom attended public schools in Douglas County and served three years in the U. S. Army in the European and African Theater of Operations. He is employed by the Mountain States Power Company in Eugene.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cooper, residents of Douglas County for 47 years, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, December 15, at a reception from two to six o'clock held at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Conn, on the Melrose road.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper were married December 15, 1896, in Virginia and moved to Oakland in 1899. Mr. Cooper has engaged in farming all of his life.

The handmade white lace cloth covering the table was centered with a four-tiered cake topped by a golden wedding bell. White and gold decorations were used on the table, while large bouquets of white and gold chrysanthemums and pansies were used about the rooms. The cake was cut by the honored couple.

A corsage of gardenias and gold rosebuds and a gold carnation boutonniere were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper from their grandsons, Duane and Stephen Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper have five children and seven grandchildren, all of whom were present.

Mrs. Stewart Cooper served the wedding cake; Mrs. Everett Cooper had charge of the guest book and the many beautiful gifts; Mrs. Leonard Cooper received and Mrs. Edward Hartz and Mrs. Christian Wulff assisted in the serving. Many lovely gifts were presented to the Coopers from relatives and friends.
