deer graced one table, while gilt pine cones, red tapers and evergreens decorated the second table. Apple Santa Clauses were used as favors. Mrs. Clara Stewig and Miss Bernadine Prince assisted the hostess in serving. Mrs. Senna Hiney, sister of the hostess, poured.

Carols were sung with Mrs. Stewig accompanying at the piano. A short business meeting was held and new officers elected included: president, Miss Elizabeth Paul; vice-president, Mrs. Mary Hall; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Clara Stewig; with Miss Paul appointing Mrs. E. E. Emmitt as gift buyer and Miss Bernadine Prince as press correspondent.

Mrs. Hiney and Miss Paul acted as Santa Clauses and distributed the gifts. Surprise birthday gifts were presented to Mrs. Mary Hall and Eva St. Onge.

Bingo was played during the social hour, Mrs. Hall winning the high prize. Those enjoying the party were Mrs. Mabel Patterson, Mrs. Clara Stewig, Mrs. E. E. Emmitt, Mrs. Eunice Sory, Mrs. Lucia Ingles, Miss Bernadine Prince, Mrs. Mary Prince, Mrs. Ora Worthington, Mrs. Mary Hall, Mrs. Nora Pondergrass, Mrs. Eva St. Onge, Mrs. Senna Hiney and the hostess, Miss Paul.

The next meeting will be January 9 at the home of Mrs. Stewig at 1020 West First street.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS CHARMING CHRISTMAS PARTY ON THURSDAY

The Mid-Week Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church enjoyed a very charming Christmas party Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Rietmann. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree was placed in the living room, while holly and mistletoe were arranged about the rooms.

During the first part of the afternoon the group sang Christmas carols and the children sang, "Away in a Manger," followed by the reading of the Christmas story.

During the social hour Christmas gifts were exchanged and a surprise grocery shower was presented to Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester. Unable to be present because of illness was Mrs. Sieman, who sent a gift for the Sylvesters' shower.

At the tea hour Mrs. Rietmann, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Pete Aquiso, a guest of the day, served lovely refreshments to Mrs. A. Schlick and children, Donna and Michael; Mrs. Roy Hebard and daughter, Judy; Mrs. L. Murphy and niece, Barbara Kay Miller; Mrs. Augusta Enry, Mrs. J. Leonard, Mrs. A. Coenenberg, Mrs. J. H. Feldkamp, Mrs. R. A. Kaine, Mrs. Varney Martin and son, Jay Maurice; Mrs. E. Roglitz, Mrs. Clara Roglitz, Mrs. W. Vogt, Mrs. Louise Voigt, Mrs. V. Andraieff, Mrs. Clinton Gorthy, Mrs. Millard Rietmann, Mrs. L. G. Wilson, Mrs. Lloyd Hill and children, Kathleen, Larry and Barbara; and Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester and sons, Richard, Milton and Robert Lee.

The next meeting of the class will be held January 2, the date of which will be announced later.

T. N. T. CHRISTMAS BANQUET AND PARTY IS CHARMING AFFAIR TUESDAY

The T. N. T. Club members enjoyed their annual Christmas banquet at seven-thirty o'clock Tuesday evening at Carl's Haven, followed by a charming party at the home of Mrs. Paul Morgan. A white cloth covered the table, which was centered with holly and red tapers. The Morgan home was beautifully decorated in the holiday motif. An especially lovely snow scene arrangement graced the buffet.

Gifts were exchanged and a social hour followed with Mrs. Sidney Moon, Jr., winning the high prize in gin rummy and Mrs. Robert Keefe winning the high prize in pinochle.

Those enjoying the party included Mrs. Sidney Moon, Jr., Mrs. Fred L. Perry, Mrs. Ira Byrd, Miss Agnes Pitchford, Mrs. Sherman Morris, Mrs. Howard Marsh, Mrs. Earl Kennerly, Mrs. Robert Keefe, Mrs. Graydon Hoover, Mrs. Cliff Thornton and Mrs. Paul Morgan.

The club will meet January 6 at an eight o'clock dessert-supper at the Perry residence at 621 S. Mill street with Mrs. Moon acting as hostess.

R. A. E. CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL HOLIDAY PARTY ON WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg Art and Embroidery Club was most graciously entertained at a charming Christmas party and one-thirty o'clock turkey dinner at the I. O. O. F. hall Wednesday with Mrs. Argie Beals, assisted by Mrs. Sinclair, Mrs. Cluck and Mrs. Polrot. Santa Claus and reindeer graced the mirror on the table, which was circled with sprays of holly.

Mrs. Frank Bergh, president, conducted the business meeting. Gifts were brought by the members to be sent to the County Home. The club presented lovely gifts to the retiring president, Mrs. Bergh, and Mrs. H. F. Snyder, secretary. Mrs. Elsie Sinclair was welcomed into the club as a new member. The resignation of Mrs. Effie Laursen was accepted, as she has moved to Roseville, Calif.

Christmas greetings from former club members were received and read and the club voted to send greetings to all former members. Mrs. Alvin Smith, a former member and now a resident of Ashland, was reported to be convalescing from a recent major operation.

The new officers will assume their duties at the next meeting. Meeting dates for the coming year were set and hostesses were selected. Arrangements were also made for members to celebrate their birthdays during the club year. The first meeting in January will be omitted.

Following the meeting, a very beautiful Christmas tree was enjoyed and gifts were exchanged.

LAIRDS RETURN HOME—Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Laird have returned to their home on Winchester street, following a week's vacation spent at Brewster, Ore., visiting the former's mother, Mrs. J. D. Laird and other relatives and friends. The Lairds' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Lowden, and children, Barbara and Linda, of Lakeview, Ore., are arriving in Roseburg Monday to remain over Christmas at the Laird home. Another daughter, Miss Maxine Laird, of Portland will spend Christmas day at the Laird home. Their son, Burton Laird, has recently been discharged from service with the U. S. Army and is now employed at Cutter's laboratory in Berkeley, Calif., where he will do bacteriological work. With his wife, he recently visited at the Laird home.
