Betcher-Fream Wedding Party.

In the presence of 200 guests, Miss Barbaradel Fream, youngest daughter of Mrs. C. R. Fream, of Roseburg and the late C. R. Fream, became the bride of Paul E. Betcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Betcher, also of Roseburg, at the Methodist Church Sunday, December 22. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the impressive double ring ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Holly, cedar, chrysanthemums and snapdragons, flanked by candles holding tall white candles, formed an attractive holiday setting for the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer W. Grow played softly on the organ and accompanied Miss Shirley Shrum, who sang, "Because." Mrs. Grow played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the bride party advanced to the altar and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional. Miss Arlene Cone and Miss Florence Denton, wearing pink and blue gowns, lighted the candles. Both wore corsages of pastel blossoms.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, J. B. Lorence, of Monmouth, was beautiful in a floor-length white wedding gown, fastened on princess lines with a low neckline and long sleeves. Her finger-tip wedding veil was held in place with a tiara of white blossoms. She carried pink carnations and white stephanotis.

Mrs. William Shaprow was matron of honor and wore a gown of yellow. She carried white carnations and yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Jean Turner and Miss Frances Moore, bridesmaids, wore pink and blue formal gowns and carried colonial nosegays of pastel blossoms.

William Shaprow of Roseburg acted as best man and Jim and Paul Hosmer, Jr., of Bend, Ore., cousins of the bride, were ushers.

Both the bride's mother and bridegroom's mother wore black afternoon dresses with matching accessories and corsages of gardenias.

A wedding reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's table was decorated in white and centered with a beautiful tiered wedding cake, which was cut by the bride couple and served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. H. Lorence, of Eugene. Mrs. Irvin Brunn and Mrs. Charles Nearen, a sister of the bridegroom, poured. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Arlene Cone. Huge baskets of mixed flowers were arranged about the room.

For traveling the bride chose a gold-colored dress with brown topcoat and British tan accessories. Her corsage was a large brown-colored orchid. Following a honeymoon to California, Mr. and Mrs. Betcher will return to Roseburg, where they are building a new home on Beacon Way.
