The home of Mr. and Mrs. Pafu J. Abeel was the scene of the wedding December 29, at two o'clock of their daughter, Doris Leone, and Don Forbes, son of Mrs. Alice Forbes of Coeur d'Alene, Ida. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the nuptials in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple. An improvised altar was arranged with white chrysanthemums before a window.

Preceding the wedding, Mrs. Frances Lintott played softly on the piano, "I Love You Truly" and "Always." The bride party entered the room to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, and at the close of the service, Mrs. Lintott played Mendelssohn's Wedding Reconciliation. Mrs. Keith Custer and Mrs. Hjalmer Johnson, dressed in pastel gowns identical in design, formed the aisle for the bride party by holding white satin streamers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a floor-length gown of white satin and chiffon fashioned with a train, sweetheart neckline and full bodice gathered at the waistline with a piping of white satin. Her finger-tie veil was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried white carnations with loops of white net and streamers of white satin.

Mrs. Chalmer Trusty, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of blue satin fashioned with cap sleeves and floor-length skirt. She carried a carnation bouquet with a shower of carnations.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

At one of the largest events of the season, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Parslow, prominent Roseburg residents for thirty-four years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a charming home reception at their residence on South Main street New Year's afternoon and evening. Bouquets of gold-colored chrysanthemums were attractively arranged about the rooms.

The serving table, covered by a beautiful tatted cloth made by Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, was centered with Tallman rosebuds arranged in a Chinese brass bowl and flanked by old-gold tapers in brass candleholders.

Mr. and Mrs. Parslow were assisted in receiving the guests by their daughter, Mrs. Frances Lintott, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parslow. Mrs. H. C. Parslow was charming in a floor-length afternoon gown of grape-colored jersey. Her corsage was of gardenias and "yellow" rosebuds. Mrs. Lintott wore a black taffeta gown trimmed in sequins and Mrs. Parslow wore a gold-colored print gown. Those assisting with the affair were attractive floor-length afternoon gowns.

Mrs. N. E. Richardson assisted about the rooms. The guest book was in charge of Miss Cynthia Sue Turner during the afternoon and by Mrs. Ray Parslow in the evening. Miss Winona Mae Fishback assisted with the wraps and those serving were Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. G. C. Finlay, Mrs. A. M. Knudsen, Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mrs. J. E. Motschenbacher, Miss Gladys H. Strong, Mrs. R. E. Crawford, Mrs. E. R. Kenny and Mrs. V. J. Miceli.

Many beautiful gifts, flowers, cards and telegrams of congratulations were received by the honored couple.

Three guests at the golden wedding celebration were also at the wedding ceremony fifty years ago and included: Mrs. Lester Bell, sister of Mrs. Parslow; Mrs. Annie Abel, sister of Mr. Parslow, and N. E. Richardson, cousin of Mrs. Parslow.

Photographs of the affair were taken by V. V. Harpham. Music for the occasion was furnished by Rev. Walter Naff, formerly of Roseburg, now pastor of the Christian Church at Redmond, Oregon, who sang vocal numbers, accompanied by his wife, the former Rose Mary Fishback, who played a group of appropriate piano solos.

Sadie Frances Dorman and Henry Cowley Parslow were married at Loretto, Minn., near Minneapolis at the home of the bride December 30, 1896. They went to Hankinson, N. D., to live, where Mr. Parslow was station agent for the Soo Line Railroad. Thirty-four years ago they came to Roseburg and Mr. Parslow went into business with his brother-in-law, L. L. Bell, known as the Parslow and Bell Hardware and Furniture Co. Later, Mr. Parslow bought Mr. Bell's interest and continued the business as Parslow Hardware and Furniture Company until his retirement from active work two years ago. The family has resided in the same home on South Main street continuously for the entire thirty-four years of residence here. The Parslows have one daughter, Mrs. Frances Lintott, and one son, Ray Parslow, both of Roseburg.

Besides the guests of honor, their daughter and their son and daughter-in-law, those enjoying the affair included: Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Poull, John Walter Joyce and Jeanne Poull, Mrs. Walter Lintott, John A. Poull, Cliff Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Britton, all of Eugene; Rev. and Mrs. Len B. Fishback and daughter, Winona Mae, and son, Dickie, of Eugene; Mrs. R. E. Crawford, Mrs. E. R. Kenny and Mrs. V. J. Miceli.
