for a nation that is already a quarter of a trillion dollars in the hole.

ALMOST anyone who has taken an intelligent note of the drunk-sailor spending of the past decade and a half will feel that opportunities for economy are almost limitless.

If you will analyze carefully the President's 1948 budget, you will observe that slightly more than half of it (nearly 19 billions out of the 37 1/2 billions) is allotted for defense costs and veterans' benefits.

THE President gets in two excellent points in his budget message.

He urges congress to reenact the excise (sales) taxes on hard liquor, beer, wine, fur, jewelry, night club bills, etc., that are scheduled to expire on July 1 of this year.

It is this writer's more or less hard-boiled opinion that in a nation whose debt now exceeds a quarter of a trillion dollars it will wound NOBODY more deeply than he can stand and still live to go on paying pretty stiff taxes on his beer and whiskey, fur, jewelry, NIGHT CLUB, etc., bills.

Bill Benson, gangly Indian forward, continued to lead the Roseburg High School basketball squad's scoring this week with a total of 103 points in 11 games played.

Trout Season Dates Set By Game Commission

Portland, Jan. 23 - Late Oregon game commission action taken Saturday, following an all-day session with sportsmen, was to set the general angling season for trout of six-inch minimum size from May 3 to October 15.

HOUSING LEGISLATORS

By CHARLES V. STANTON

The current session of the Oregon State Legislature will debate many weighty problems. This forty-fourth assembly is faced with problems of grave importance.

Members of the legislature, for the most part, are expecting the current session to cost several hundred dollars from their own pockets, largely because of housing expense and prospective length of meeting.

Senators and representatives are paid $8 per day, but compensation is limited to a period of 50 days. It will be utterly impossible for the legislature to complete its work within the time limit, members expecting that the session will last from 75 to 85 days.

They will receive $400 for the period of the assembly, but will take deductions ranging from $75 to $100 for income taxes, leaving $300 to $325 as actual "earnings."

Another delegate has rented a house, located about one mile from the capitol. He must pay $150 per month. He, too, is stuck for $375 if the session goes 75 days.

The third delegate from Douglas County has rented a cabin in an auto court, outside the city limits and at least two miles from the capitol and must pay transient rates, or $175 per month—more than $400 if the session goes 75 days.

Each legislator, therefore, will pay considerably more for housing than his total compensation. In addition he must pay for his meals, transportation, etc. He will be called upon to contribute to charity, buy the usual gifts for officers, flowers for ill or bereaved members and numerous incidentals.

All-in-all it appears that a legislator must expect to give not only his time and service but his money as well.

Legislators contend they are being "gouged" by exorbitant rentals in the Salem area. The experience of our own delegates would tend to support the accusation.

It is possible, however, that a program to erect barracks-apartments at the state fair grounds, to serve state fair personnel, legislators and others engaged in service to the state, with a fair rate of rental to be charged and paid into the general fund to liquidate eventually the cost of construction, might be given serious consideration.

OSC Basketeers Tip U. of O., 73-69, In Overtime Battle

Oregon State's five continued undefeated in Northern Division basketball conference when the basketball team defeated the University of Oregon in a 73-69 overtime triumph over the Ducks, while Washington State took a 36-28 win over the winless Idaho defending titlist.

The Webfoot triumph came directly from the free throw line where Oregon State missed only five shots in 31 attempts. Both teams scored 48 points in field goals during the nip-and-tuck contest that ended deadlocked at 62-all in regular play.

Indian Hoopsters Tip Elmira, 53-21; Axemen Next Foe

By ROYAL S. DENTON Coach Jack Newby's Indians pulled out of their one-time slump of Friday night to smother an Elmira Falcon quintet Saturday night, 53-21.

Reported by Newby as an nip-and-tuck affair through the first quarter, the Indians finally clicked on their fast-break to lead the Falcons, 26-17, holding them to two points at the end of the third period, and bearing down even more in the final minutes to clinch victory.

Even without the services of Gary Piper, fleet-footed forward, the Indians "looked like a real ball club in the latter half," Newby stated.

Benson, forward, sank 16 points to take top scoring, followed by Pope, Roseburg guard, with 12. Wrangle, Elmira center, potted 10.

Lineups: Benson, 16; F. I. Marsh; Benson, 16; F. I. Marsh; Nichols, 4; F. 2, Reid; Blank, 4; C. 10, Wrangle; Pope, 12; G. 9, Brown; Harvey, 6; G. 5, Toney

Substitutions: Roseburg—Coen 4; Marsters 2; Scofield 2; McCown 2; Teleford; Elmira—Smith, Hoover, Grantham 2; Pettit 2; Favver; Officials: Taylor and Kaufman.

Axemen Dated Friday The Indians face their toughest contest to date next Friday night at the local court when they play host to Eugene's high-scoring Axemen in their initial fray of the season with that school.

A busy week is in store for other Tri-County League quintets as each team vies for a higher rung on the ladder to the league championship.

Biggest upset thus far in the circuit was University High's trouncing by Junction City, putting Eugene High back in the league leadership after succumbing to Uni-High earlier in the week.

The Axemen, after winning their fourth district victory, downing Cottage Grove Friday night, 45-25, entertain Corvallis Tuesday in a Hib-Six tilt, while in the same league, Springfield plays host to Salem's Vikings, St. Mary's Catholic travel to Junction City, and Cottage Grove's scheduled meet with Uni-High has been postponed.

Wednesday night Eugene takes on Elmira, and Friday Eugene comes to Roseburg with St. Mary's at Cottage Grove and Springfield entertains Albany.

A pair of Saturday night district contests send Elmira to Junction City and Springfield's predictable Millers to Roseburg. Tickets for the two Roseburg contests this weekend will go on sale Tuesday morning at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Drain High Basketeers Down Yoncalla, 53 to 36

Drain High School's strong basketball team ripped Yoncalla's Blue and Gold club Saturday night, 53-36, on the latter's court in a Douglas County B league tilt.

The Drainites had little trouble with the Eagles, leading 14-8 at the first quarter, 20-13 at the half and 44-20 at the third quarter. Ritchey, Yoncalla guard, led the scoring with 15 points, followed by Drain's Cellars with 12.

Year's Fire Loss At Reedsport Low

REEDSPORT—At least once in every month last year, Reedsport's fire fighting equipment went out on calls, according to the report of Fire Chief M. M. Kelly. Of a total of 15 calls, two were out of the city.

One of the greatest fire losses was that of the Gardiner grade school building. Reedsport equipment was dispatched to aid the Gardiner Rural Fire Protection District. This fire, however, has not been credited as a loss for Reedsport.

Total insurance coverage of property at risk by fire, within the city, amounted to $67,000. Actual loss was stated to be $4,150. This included damage to the searolling tug, Tiger, owned by the Umpqua River Navigation Co., estimated at $1,500. The tug was set afire from a blowtorch during the installation of a new motor.

Loss of a trailer house razed by fire was estimated to be $2,000. Otherwise, property loss, due mainly to fire fires, amounted to less than $700.
