Marry at Home Wedding

Miss Virdie Stapleford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stapleford of Roseburg, and James White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noble White, also of this city, were married at a pretty wedding December 28 at the home of the bride, Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony at six o'clock in the evening.

An improvised altar was formed by the use of an arch of cedar and holly outlined with pom-pom white chrysanthemums. Two large baskets of white chrysanthemums and two candelabra completed the setting. The candles were lighted by the two bridesmaids.

The bride wore a light gray suit with black accessories. She carried a white daisy topped by a spray of open roses with streamers knotted with Stephanotis. Her mother, Mrs. J. E. Stapleford, was matron of honor and wore a dress of black with a corsage of roses. Miss Jean Snoddy, in a black and white pin-striped suit with black accessories, and Miss Gerry Williamson, in a deep green ensemble with black accessories, were bridesmaids. Both wore gardenia corsages. Bob Stapleford, brother of the bride, was best man. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose-hedge dress with white accessories and a corsage of roses. Mrs. Virdie Williams, of Portland, maternal grandmother of the bride, wore a black afternoon dress with a corsage of yellow roses.

A reception followed, at which time the three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. Holly and mistletoe decorated the table.

Besides the bridal party, those present were Mrs. Virdie Williams, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Noble White and son, Kiles, and Mrs. Morris H. Roach.

The bride and bridegroom both attended Roseburg Senior High School. The latter spent three years in the army with two years in the European theater of operations. He is now employed as an assistant surveyor in this city. Following a honeymoon to Grass Valley, Calif., they returned to Roseburg to make their home.
