Mrs. Howard Weyel.

Miss Gladys Kill of Bakersfield, Calif., formerly of Seneca, Kan., and Howard Weyel of Medford were united in marriage Saturday evening, January 4, at the Methodist Church in Roseburg.

The bride wore a beautiful white satin gown with a net yoke edged in silver beaded flower design. Her veil was held by a tiara of white carnations and she carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and white roses. Her only ornament was a lovely sapphire locket, a gift from the bridegroom. She was given in

Mrs. Harrie W. Booth Presents Charming Program for Club

A very charming program was presented by Mrs. Harrie W. Booth at the annual birthday party of the Roseburg Women's Club held Tuesday at one-thirty o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church parlors.

Mrs. C. S. Heinline, a past president of the club, who recently arrived from Cheyenne, Wyo., to visit several weeks prior to going to Eugene, where she will be a house mother in a sorority house, was welcomed as special guest of honor for the day.

The program opened with a community sing led by Mrs. Charles A. Brand, accompanied by Mrs. Homer W. Grow, after which Mrs. A. J. Geddes, president, called upon Mrs. Heinline, who gave a delightful talk. Mrs. Heinline recently visited her former home in Washington, D. C., and attended a tea one Sunday afternoon, where she met Mrs. Truman, wife of the president.

Reports were given by Mrs. Paul S. Elliott, secretary, and Miss Estelle V. Conover, treasurer.

Mrs. Booth, program chairman, assisted by Mrs. Clyde Carstens, pianist, introduced the following numbers: vocal solo "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Last Rose of Summer" by Marilyn Feller, accompanied by Shirley Feller, senior High Triple Trio, under the direction of Mrs. O. J. Monger, with Janice Plummer as accompanist, presented "The Rose and When I Wish Upon a Star," followed by an encore, "You're My Heart Alone," Mrs.

Marry at Episcopal Church

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Elliott.

Miss Frances Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Smith, and Robert B. Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elliott of Roseburg, were married Saturday, January 11, at four o'clock in the afternoon at St. George's Episcopal Church with Father William L. Blaker officiating.

Pink carnations, calla lilies and snapdragons formed the altar decorations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a floor-length gown of white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and full train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a starched lace coronet. She carried a white Eibie topped by a large white orchid tied with satin ribbons.

Miss June Clayton was maid of honor and wore a pink tulle dress. Miss Elva Jean Morgan and Miss Jeanne Dillard, bridesmaids, wore gowns of matching blue. The three attendants were matching headbands fashioned with pink roses and lilies of the valley and carried matching nosegays of white carnations and pink snapdragons tied with pink and blue ribbon.

Don Jones of Eugene was best man and James R. Davidson and Ben Toole of Eugene were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a peacock brown suit with pink accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morand Mrs. Frederic J. Porter.

The next meeting will be February 4 at one-thirty o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church parlors with Mrs. Hedwig Watzig and Mrs. Scott Layman as roll-call topic speakers and Mrs. George E. Houck as program chairman of the topic, "Consumer Problems." The hostess committee includes Mrs. H. D. Scott, chairman, Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Mrs. Arnold Helgeson and Mrs. M. B. Green.
