Published Daily Except Sunday by the NEWS-REVIEW COMPANY, INC. Entered as second class matter May 17, 1920, at the postoffice at Roseburg, Oregon, under act of March 3, 1879.

The Weather U. S. Weather Bureau Office Roseburg, Oregon. Forecast for Roseburg and vicinity: Occasional light rain to night and Saturday.

In the Day's News

en days when there were surpluses. We complained bitterly about the surpluses then, but have since learned the important economic lesson that if the world is to run successfully there must be more sellers than buyers.

THE general story is that the transportation jam is well over the peak. There are even fairly reliable reports of people walking in, asking for a Pullman berth or a seat on the next plane and GETTING IT—just as simple as that!

STILL—An Oregonian started shopping this morning for a room, preferably, or a lower berth, fairly hopefully, or just anything, dear Lord, as a last resort on the Cascade for tonight.

He GOT A ROOM, over the telephone, and was instructed to call for it as soon as reasonably possible.

HE showed up at the window in about 20 minutes, told his name and his business, and was met by a look of blank surprise on the face of the reservation clerk.

"Why, sir," the clerk said, "this reservation was delivered to you not over five minutes ago."

"Check," the purchaser replied. "And the room was such and such, was it not?" the clerk cross examined.

"Check again," was the response. "Well," the clerk concluded, "we certainly delivered that room to a man giving your name."

"What happened?" The unlucky Oregonian doesn't know, but he suspects that someone needing accommodations on that train might have overheard the transaction and dashed down and palmed himself off as the purchaser.

Anyway, that is the story as it was told to this writer an hour or so later by the victim of the "coincidence."

ROADSIDE GARBAGE DUMPS

By CHARLES V. STANTON

The Douglas County Court is greatly perturbed by promiscuous dumping of rubbish along county roads. Rewards are offered for information leading to arrest and conviction of guilty persons. But we doubt if rewards will succeed in halting the practice.

A few days ago we had occasion to travel the road from Roseburg to Lookingglass. The pass section of that road is virtually a public dump. Rubbish of all kinds, including automobile frames and even rotting garbage, lines the embankment.

One has only to travel any county road to become appalled by the extent of public rubbish disposal. While use of public highways for garbage dumps is more general in the vicinity of the heavily populated communities, and is in direct proportion to the density of population, there is scarcely a mile of county road, no matter how remote, which does not contain its unsightly scar of discarded rubbish.

We cannot understand the type of mind which can so thoughtlessly and carelessly despoil the scenic beauty inherent in our county roads. We know of no place in Oregon, or in any other state for that matter, where there is more natural beauty, mile-for-mile, along county roads than is to be found here in the Umpqua Valley.

In many sections of the county the condition is so bad that a man must be sent on foot ahead of road working equipment to clear bottles from shoulders and ditches to prevent ruining tires and blades on costly machinery. Control cannot be maintained by police action. Even if the county should hire patrolmen for every mile of road, violators still could escape detection.

Insofar as municipalities are concerned, there might be some improvement if we could provide a less expensive and more efficient garbage collection system. Certainly there is room for better and more extensive service. Costs should be brought within reach of all households. But, even then, there are persons who will not patronize the organized collection service. It might, however, be well for city officials to study possibility of a tax-supported municipal garbage disposal system whereby costs would be paid through taxes to which all property would be subjected, making the service available and somewhat compulsory at every home.

Two Mat Title Holders Billed Here Saturday

Back Weaver, the Louisville, Ky., sensation who held Bill Weidner to a draw here last week in his local wrestling debut, will meet Billy Goetz, Pacific Coast, light-heavyweight champion, in one of two headline attractions here at the Roseburg Armory Saturday night.

The other one-hour main event battle will bring together Pete Belcastro, coast junior heavy titlist, and Jack Lipscomb, tough-tough Indians grappler. The Belcastro-Lipscomb skirmish will be in marked contrast to the scientific battle expected between Weaver and Goetz.

Weaver lived up to advance billing here last weekend by matching Billy Weidner at every turn. The Southerner displayed a well-founded grappling technique that included a potent drop-kick. He managed to survive Weidner's sensational airplane spin. Goetz is expected to be forced to the limit, and local wrestling railbirds predict he will be meeting the matman who will eventually defeat him for the coveted coast crown.

Belcastro and Lipscomb are certain to stage a titanic Donnybrook in which the blood will likely flow as freely as the waters of the Umpqua. Douglas County fans who like their wrestling rough and tough have been requesting Matchmaker Don Owen to bring the skirmish here.

Belcastro has flattened so many matmen with his terrific upkicks and wild-swinging haymakers that he has discarded any semblance of scientific wrestling technique. Lipscomb, who still resorts to mat skills at times, is equally effective with his fists. Both Lipscomb and Weaver will be striving for possible championship engagements, and victories Saturday night will go a long way in making title tilts possible.

The Weaver-Goetz opener will get under way at 8:30 P. M. Elton Owen will referee both bouts.
