To Leave on Trip

News-Review Engraving Mrs. Clark Leedy.

Mrs. Clark Leedy, nee Meredith Anne Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jenkins of Roseburg, who is leaving next Wednesday for an extended trip through the south to the east coast, where she will sail for Sweden, was the inspiration for one of the loveliest parties of the week, when Mrs. Chester Morgan entertained at a seven o'clock dessert-supper at her attractive home in Laurewood Thursday evening.

A sapphire blue cloth covered the table, which was centered with a ship. Tiny boats were used as favors and individual maps held the serving plates. "Sweden" was printed on the napkins.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Leedy, guest of honor, her mother, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, and Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. Robert Browning, Mrs. J. B. Wharton, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. Gordon Stewart, Mrs. Fredrick J. Porter and the hostess, Mrs. Morgan.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the evening with Mrs. Leedy winning the high score prize and Mrs. Browning receiving the traveling prize.

Following the bridge play, a surprise shower of gifts for traveling was given Mrs. Leedy.

Mrs. Leedy will be joined in Roseburg next Tuesday at the Jenkins home in Laurewood by Miss Lila Johansson and Miss Kathleen McGrath, all of Seattle, who will remain overnight here and with Mrs. Leedy will leave Wednesday for Sacramento, Calif., for a short visit with the latter's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leedy.

The four will make the trip by automobile through California to Camelback Inn at Phoenix, Ariz., after which they will leave for New Orleans with numerous other stop-overs in the southern states. They will visit points of interest on the east coast and plan to spend a few days at Williamsburg, Va. They will spend several days in Washington, D. C. and New York City, prior to sailing March 14 on the Gripsholm for Göteborg, Sweden, after which they will go to Stockholm, Sweden, where they will make their headquarters for six or seven months.

Miss Kyza Ericson is returning to her home in Stockholm, following a stay in Seattle for the last five years. Miss Johansson will visit relatives in Sweden, while Miss McGrath and Mrs. Leedy are accompanying them to enjoy a vacation trip.

Upon their return trip, they plan to visit several countries in Europe, as well as England and Ireland.
