C. of C. to Resume Forum Luncheons

The program for resumption of Chamber of Commerce forum luncheons at regular intervals will be inaugurated Monday, Feb. 17, when the first of a series of such luncheons will be held at the Civic Room of the Umpqua Hotel, starting at 12 noon. H. C. Berg, chairman of the forum committee, announced today.

At a meeting of the committee

Attends to Business — Richard McClintock of Roseburg is spending a few days in Portland attending to business.

Home From Portland — Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard have returned to their home on South Jackson street, following a few days in Portland on business.

Doing Nicely at Hospital — K. D. Adams, who underwent a serious major operation at Mercy hospital a week ago today, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Purchases Home — Mrs. C. S. Heinline has purchased the Morgan duplex across from Mercy hospital, to make her home. Mrs. Heinline recently returned to Roseburg to reside, following a number of years making her home in Cheyenne, Wyo., where she conducted a school of music. Previously she conducted a similar school in Roseburg for a long period.

Attend Inspection — Ray B. Hampton, associate guardian of Bethel No. 8, Job's Daughters, Roseburg, took Honored Queen Georgene Shanklin, Junior Princess Cynthia Sue Turner, Guide Susan Moteschenbacher, and Naney Caskey to visit the inspection of Coquille Bethel No. 15, Monday evening, at which time the grand guardian of Oregon, Mrs. Esther Dunlap, of Eugene, was present.

Reservations Asked for — All Lady Elks planning on attending the 12:30 o'clock luncheon at Carl's Haven Saturday, February 8, honoring visiting Lady Elks attending the mid-winter convention, are asked to make their reservations by this evening by calling either Mrs. Harold Haskin or Mrs. Mitchell Moore. Those desiring transportation are asked to meet at the Elks temple at 12:15 o'clock. A card party will be held for the members and visitors at 2 o'clock at the temple.

Nurses to Meet Tuesday — District No. 11, Oregon State Nurses Association, will meet Tuesday night at a 7 o'clock potluck supper at the home of the retiring president, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, 441 Fowler street. Miss Miriam Davis, new president, will conduct the business meeting. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service. Miss Golda Beal will relate her experiences while in Framingham, Mass., where she attended a conference for instructors in Veterans Administration Hospitals. All registered graduated nurses are invited and dues will be payable at this session.

Twins Are Born — Twins, a son, Lawrence Leland, weighing five pounds eight ounces, and a daughter, Julia Vivian, weighing four pounds fourteen ounces, were born Thursday, January 30, at Eugene to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson Brown. Mr. Brown, who is attending University of Oregon Law School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Leland Brown of The Dalles. Mrs. Brown is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Hale of Imbler, Ore. The twins have two great-grandmothers, Mrs. George M. Brown of Roseburg, (widow of the late Supreme Court Justice George M. Brown) and Mrs. Julia E. Phillips of Walla Walla, Wash.

held this morning, it was decided that the discussion topic should pertain to city zoning. Spencer Yates was appointed program chairman. An open discussion on the zoning subject will be a part of the meeting.

James Stoop and Paul Kieth were appointed to direct the ticket sale.

The meeting, it was stated, will be open to all interested persons who purchase reservations.

The membership will determine at the Monday meeting the frequency of future forum luncheons.

Parley Set for Douglas District Cub Leaders

Cub leaders in the Douglas District of the Boy Scouts will attend a round table discussion at 8 o'clock tonight at the First Methodist Church. It was announced by E. A. Seaton, assistant Scout executive.

A Scouters' luncheon will be held at the Rose Hotel Friday noon for chairmen of operating committees, commissioners, and district officers.

The Douglas District meeting will be held Feb. 17 at the First Presbyterian Church, Roseburg, and a court of honor is scheduled March 17.

American farmers reap about one million tons of rice annually, but domestic consumption is only one-third of that; the balance is exported.
