MRS. A. G. HENNINGER ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Pale pink snapdragons and ferns, flanked by tall pink tapers, graced the lace-covered table used by Mrs. A. G. Henninger Friday, when she entertained her bridge club at a lovely one o'clock dinner-luncheon at her attractive home in Laurelwood.

Covers were placed for Mrs. E. A. Pearson and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, guests, and Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., Mrs. O. R. Hess, Mrs. Marshall Pengra, Mrs. S. J. Cooper, Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostess, Mrs. Henninger.

Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Pengra winning the high scores.

MR. AND MRS. DUNNAVIN HONORED AT DELICIOUS DINNER FRIDAY EVENING

A delightful dinner was given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Dunnavin to celebrate the marriage of their son, Raymond, and his bride, the former Miss Ethel Tubb of Melbourne, Australia. The wedding took place January 25 at Grants Pass and the couple spent their honeymoon traveling through California and Oregon.

Many lovely gifts and cards of congratulation were presented to the bride and bridegroom. The couple will motor to LaCrosse, Washington, where Mr. Dunnavin will resume his position as official in charge of the Weather Bureau.

MISS CLOVER KERR IS HONORED BY LOS ANGELES FRIENDS AT SHOWER

Miss Clover Kerr, who will become the bride of Clark Taylor on Valentine's day, at a ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church at eight o'clock in the evening, was honored by a group of friends in Los Angeles giving a bridal shower by proxy. Mrs. Joanne Klumbe and Mrs. Gladys Engelke were joint hostesses for the affair, which occurred January 17.

Invitations to Los Angeles friends of Miss Kerr, where she made her home until moving to Roseburg five years ago, were as follows:

Clover is to be married in a week or so.

Away up in Oregon, too far for us to go.

And though a shower by proxy is something rather new.

We think it a good idea—how about you?

So, here is what we are going to do.

Bring your gift—the wrappings too.

We'll pack them well and ship them off to Oregon.

Won't that be swell?

And though she is so far away She'll have a real shower for wedding day.

Beautiful gifts were sent to Miss Kerr from the two hostesses and Mrs. Rosalie Kerr, Mrs. Juanita Smith, Mrs. Frances Smith, Miss Dorothy Lanpher, Mrs. LaRue Matheron, Miss Marilyn Gordon, Mrs. Marjorie Giffin, Mrs. Violet Jensen, Mrs. Gerrie Boswell, Mrs. Dorothy Crebs, Mrs. Josephine Cavin, Mrs. Marcia Engelke, Miss Engelke, Miss Kathryn Canning and Mrs. F. C. Schubert.

Miss Kerr and her mother, Mrs. Anna T. Kerr, and Clark Taylor left this morning for Eugene to meet Mrs. Joanne Klumbe and Mrs. Gladys Engelke, who will remain over in Roseburg for the wedding. Mrs. Klumbe will be matron of honor and Mrs. Engelke will assist at the reception, which will take place at the Roseburg Country Clubhouse.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A very interesting meeting of the Missionary Society was held at the First Christian Church Friday. A twelve-thirty o'clock salad-luncheon was served by Mrs. Emma Beckley, Mrs. Elsie Coffell and Mrs. Pearl Carter. The tables were beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers and lighted tapers. Covers were placed for twenty-five members and visitors.

Mrs. Saunders, state Missionary secretary, and Mrs. R. E. Mosher, state representative children's worker, both of Eugene, were guests of honor.

A contribution to the March of Dimes was made, after which Mrs. Frank Poole sang the solo, "The Stranger of Galilee." The devotion was presented on the topic, "Set Thine Heart Toward the Highway" by Mrs. Harold Boucock, who closed the topic by singing a duet with Mrs. Poole.

A forum on different phases of India was conducted by Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, Mrs. J. R. Wilson, Mrs. Elsie Coffell and Mrs. Carl Anderson. Fine talks were given by the two guest speakers with need for more homes for the aged and for very young children, as there are only six such homes for each in the United States. Mrs. Mosher stressed the essential needs of the leaders working with the children. The open discussion centered around the meaningful factors of the child's life.

The study for the season is on India, following largely the book, "Verdict on India" by Beverly Nichols.

A very interesting meeting is anticipated for February 28 at the home of Mrs. W. H. Carter on Harvard Avenue. A tea in the manner of India will be served and the public is invited to attend.

Marry at Impressive Church Wedding

The romance of a G.I. and his Australian fiancée culminated at the Sellwood Baptist Church in Portland, Saturday, January 18, at a candlelight ceremony, when Elwood Martin Nelson, son of S.W. Custerway, Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nickard M. Nelson formerly of 1164 Military Street, Roseburg, and Miss Jean Sproull of Sydney, Australia, were married. Rev. Ralph Mulholland, formerly pastor of the Roseburg Baptist Church, performed the impressive double ring service in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The altar was decorated with white lilies, in which was entwined Lawson Cypress, forming the background for the tall standards of chrysanthemums and candelabra. Streamers of white satin ribbon and maline extended from a cluster of white wedding bells in the center of the lattice to the baskets of flowers.

Margaret Keifer, cousin of the bridegroom, and June Clark, one wearing pink net, lighted the candles. Miss Rose Wares was the accompanist for Virginia Bryant, who sang, "I Love You Truly."

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER PARTY IS GIVEN MRS. WILSON

A pink and blue shower was held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Roeder, Thursday for Mrs. Eva Wandell Wilson. Attending the party were: Mrs. Parker Davis and daughter, Beverly; Mrs. Dave Haffley, Mrs. Wesley Greier, Mrs. Douglas Briggs and son, Buddy; Mrs. Lloyd Leonard and daughter, Mary Ellen, and son, Lynn; Mrs. Henry Teller and children, Millie and Betty; Mrs. Earnest McKinney and daughter, Doris; Mrs. Roy Perry and daughters, Joann and Katherine; Mrs. Hiram Germond and daughter, Paula; Mrs. Stanley Mohr and daughters, Betty and Carline; Miss Martha Clark, Mrs. Henry Crane, Mrs. Kenneth Fortin, Mrs. K. D. Lytle of Roseburg; Mrs. Ralph Peery and daughter, Norma, and son, Stevie, of Medford; Mrs. Floyd Peery and daughter, Arlene, and sons, Jimmy and Butch, of Sutherlin; and Mrs. Leo Denn of Eugene.

Those who were unable to attend but who sent presents were: Mrs. Carl Thornton and daughter, Florence; Mrs. Harry Hirst, Mrs. Curt Waldhouse, Mrs. John Teller, Mrs. Jake Germond, Mary Germond and Grandma Germond, Mrs. Carl Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth Teal, Miss Leota Wilson, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Marie Nance, Melvin Wilson, Will Black, Carrie Denn, Mrs. Howard Leonard, Mrs. John Bacon, Mrs. Henry Hebard, Mrs. Alton Hebard, Mrs. Russell Vincent and Mrs. Amie Peipert.

Refreshments were served. The time was spent in visiting. Mrs. Wilson received many lovely gifts.

MRS. RICHARD FIES HONORED AT CHARMING SHOWER AND DINNER

Mrs. Elliott Perkins and Mrs. Knute Kershner were most charming hostesses Wednesday evening, when they entertained at a very lovely six-fifty-five o'clock dinner and pink and blue shower party at the Hotel Umpqua in compliment to Mrs. Richard Fies.

Covers were placed at a beautifully appointed table for Mrs. Fies, guest of honor, Mrs. Jack Josse, Mrs. L. K. Fies, Mrs. Robert Harris, Miss D'Ann Shoemaker, Mrs. Jack Bathrick, Mrs. Holden McTaggart, Mrs. Delbert Parker, Mrs. Ray Daugherty, Mrs. Donald Matson and the hostesses, Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Kershner.

Lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Fies and the social hour was enjoyably spent in visiting.

and "Because." Miss Ward also played the Bridal Chorus from the Sellwood Baptist Church in Portland, Saturday, January 18, at a candlelight ceremony, when Elwood Martin Nelson, son of S.W. Custerway, Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nickard M. Nelson formerly of 1164 Military Street, Roseburg, and Miss Jean Sproull of Sydney, Australia, were married. Rev. Ralph Mulholland, formerly pastor of the Roseburg Baptist Church, performed the impressive double ring service in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Charles Sproull, who accompanied her to the United States on December 15, 1946. The bride was very charming in a white slipper satin gown fashioned with a full train. Her veil of Brussels lace fell from a headdress of orange blossoms. For the traditional "something old" of the trousseau, two lovely satin bows with seed pearls made from the wedding dress of the bride's mother ornamented the neckline. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias, freesias and white rosebuds, tied with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Vernon Hood, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and was lovely in a gown of aqua taffeta. She carried an arm bouquet of Pink Perfection Camellias. Marvin Hoffmeister, a high school mate of the bridegroom while both were in school in Roseburg, was best man. The ushers were Vernon Hood and Bob Halders.

A reception followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nickard M. Nelson at 0400 S. W. Custerway. Assisting were Mrs. Ruth Forslund, Mrs. Ralph Mulholland, Mrs. Raymond Keifer, Mrs. F. W. Callison and Mrs. George Schriber.

Mrs. Sproull wore a black formal with a corsage of Talisman rosebuds and the bridegroom's mother wore a black formal with a corsage of rosebuds.

For traveling the bride chose a fawn-colored tailored wool suit with brown trim and brown accessories. Her hat was also fawn-colored with brown trim and veil. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Following a honeymoon to coastal points, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson returned to Portland and are now at home to their friends at 6019 S. W. Corbett Avenue.

The bride was a former cometometrist in Australia and was with the American Red Cross during the war. Mr. Nelson, who is now employed by the Pacific Body Builders in Portland, served with the 41st Division, Company D, and was overseas 42 months. He participated in the invasions of New Guinea, Bialk and the Philippines.

Prior to the wedding, the couple was honored at a large party for members of the younger set given by the bridegroom's mother, presented to each lady guest.

Following the dinner hour, the group went to the Decker home and later enjoyed dancing at the Elks.

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR ORGANIZATION OF AN AUXILIARY TUESDAY

A group of nineteen persons met at the home of Mrs. Walter Samuelson, 445 S. Pine Street, Tuesday afternoon to discuss plans for the organization of an auxiliary working unit for Eden Ladies Aid of the Elgarose Lutheran Church. After an informal meeting, consisting of the singing of familiar hymns, scripture reading by the pastor, Rev. Enoch Sandeen of North Bend, and expressions from those present, refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Johnson, 242 South Rose Street, March 4, at two o'clock.

MR. AND MRS. DECKER ENTERTAIN AT LOVELY DINNER ON SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Decker celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary by inviting a group of friends to enjoy a charming seven-thirty o'clock dinner party at Carl's Haven. Daffodils and tall yellow tapers graced the table, which held a cake, prettily decorated and bearing the 25th anniversary lettering. Covers were placed for the host and hostess and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Saffley and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fredrickson. Carnation corsages were

MELROSE GRANGE HAS INTERESTING MEETING ON TUESDAY EVENING

Melrose Grange, No. 434, met in regular session Tuesday with Master, Amy Matthews in her station. There were thirteen officers present on roll call.

Lenore Cooper, Roberta and Clarion Chitwood were balloted on and elected to membership. Ten applications, one re-instatement and two applications as unaffiliated members were read and referred to the investigating committee.

Reports were given by standing committees and Home Economics Chairman Margaret Aydelott announced Home Economic Club would meet February 12th for a 1 o'clock luncheon at the Ann Chitwood home with Amy Matthews as joint hostess, and also reported a public card party to be held at the Melrose Grange hall February 21st at 8 o'clock.
