The invocation was given by the club chaplain, Mrs. Knox, followed by group singing led by Mrs. Brand, accompanied by Mrs. Grow, Mrs. Watzig and Mrs. Layman. Mrs. Gilbo, a topic speaker of the League of Oregon Women Voters, which is a non-partisan organization open to all the county.

Mrs. Alvin Helgeson, president of the league, gave a short talk outlining the objectives of the group and invited all women in the county to join the organization. Mrs. Gilbo introduced E. R. Moon, who with his wife did missionary work in Africa for many years. Rev. Mr. Moon gave a very interesting talk on "The African Woman and Some of Her Problems."

Carla Lee Taylor very charmingly sang, "Danny Boy" and "Moonbeam, Shining" accompanied by Mrs. H. Richard Nerbas, after which Janice Plummer very delightfully played two piano solos including "Waltz" and "A Giddy Girl."

Mrs. George E. Houck was chairman of the topic, "Consumers' Problems" and introduced G. J. Gilbo, director of personnel for Henningsen's, as the guest speaker. Mr. Gilbo gave a very fine talk on current food problems, which proved of much interest to the members and guests. Mrs. Houck added to the talk by giving an outline of needed nutrition for health and illustrated her talk with a number of nutritional charts. A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. A. J. Geddes.

The club will meet at one-thirty o'clock February 18 at the Presbyterian Church parlors.

Mrs. C. E. Hart, Mrs. Bernard Saar, Mrs. Harold Jokela, Mrs. Donald Johnson, Miss Cecelia Watzig and Miss Annaloria Ward.

Mrs. C. B. Wade is HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. C. B. Wade entertained her bridge club at a very charming luncheon at her beautiful home on South Kane street Tuesday at one o'clock. Dutch Iris formed a very pretty motif for the occasion.

DAILY DEVOTIONAL

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

In the second century a Christian was brought before a king, who demanded that he renounce Christ. To frighten him the king said "If you do not give up your belief in Christ I will banish you from the country." Thereupon the man replied, "you may banish me, but you cannot banish me from Christ, for He has promised that He will never forsake me." "I will take your property, and the king, "My treasure is in heaven," came the reply. "I will kill you," thundered the king. "I have been dead for forty years, dead to the world and to sin, and my life is hid with Christ in God," came the calm reply. As life came to Christ through death, so Christ comes to us also when we are crucified with Him. When we become dead unto the world but alive unto righteousness, "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." May we be able to say, "I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, yet not I but Christ liveth in me and the life I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God Who loved me and gave Himself for me." Amen.

a pretty motif for the table. Covers were placed for Mrs. R. J. Greenfield, a guest, and Mrs. E. A. Pearson, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark, Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. L. K. Fies, Mrs. Mel Ingram, Mrs. C. B. Lees, Mrs. M. C. Bowker and the hostess, Mrs. Syron. High scores for the contract bridge plays were won by Mrs. Ingram and Mrs. Lockwood.

H. F. Galarneau Buys Depot Cafe in Yoncalla

Announcement of sale of the Bus Depot Cafe in Yoncalla this week was made by Nita R. Skinner, who has owned and operated the establishment for the past 14 months.

Sale was made through the Roseburg Realty Co. to Harry F. Galarneau, former owner of the C. and H. Truck Repair in Roseburg. Originally from Klamath Falls, Galarneau and his British war bride have resided in Roseburg since his discharge from the Air Corps in 1945.

Also sold by the local realty firm was Galarneau's home on Melrose Road. It was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Gurney.

Oregon History Course Will be Taught Here

The course is one required for teachers' certification. The first class will meet at 7:30 P. M., Feb. 19, at the Junior High School. The usual extension fee will be required.

Can of Old Coins Dug Up By Tree Planter

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 8. —A can filled with old coins was dug up by Arthur Heiderman while planting a tree on his property and today he was spading the rest of his lot, looking for more.

The group of coins dated back to 1834. Their value was set at $200, most of it made up of an appraisal of $10 each for 16 half-dollars minted in 1856. The can was about a foot under ground. Heiderman bought the property as a brush-covered lot in 1940 and subsequently built a house on it.

Unborn Child Has Defender in Judge

SEATTLE, Feb. 7.—(AP)—An unborn baby, a pawn in a divorce case, found a staunch defender in Superior Judge Roger J. Meakim today.

When Glenn H. Stokes, 21, war veteran seeking a default decree from his 20-year-old wife, Iva, testified yesterday he would pay towards the child's support but wanted to give it to her and another man she is interested in, Judge Meakim exclaimed:

"What is this, a lottery? I am not impressed by a man who won't fight for his own child." His wife wants to marry the other man and he has given permission, Stokes said, for him to adopt the child after its expected birth in April. His parents, in Ellensburg, are unable to care for it and he can not do so himself. "I will represent the child, and will take this case under advisement until after the baby is born," Judge Meakim ruled. The Stokes were married at Ellensburg Oct. 31, 1944.
