Douglas Champs Get New Chance For State Series

Gene Krewson's Douglas County Commercial hoop champs get a return match Sunday at 2:30 P. M. at Senior High's gym to avenge a 42-32 defeat handed them by Reedsport's American Legion quintet.

Entered in state A. A. U. competition, the Rainier Dips must win over Coos County League entries to obtain entrance in the tournament in Portland March 2-4-7. A win over the Legionnaires will leave a split and a contest with Powers, also entered in the state-wide competition.

A. A. U. Commissioner Dick Strite announced Tuesday that deadline for entry in either the Lane-Linn-Benton or the Douglas-County district playoff will be February 15, after which time the playoffs will be arranged.

Oregon's Jayvees are currently tied with Eugene's Eagles for the Lane circuit, but the J.V.'s are not eligible for the state A. A. U. tournament, leaving the Eagles with a playoff with leaders of Benton and Linn county which include Shedd, Brownsville, Lebanon and Corvallis. Cal Bonney, Outdoor Store forward, who caused trouble for the Grillers in a recent benefit contest in Roseburg, is currently leading the Lane A. A. U. scoring with 216 Howard "Hap" Applegate, former Yoncalla and Roseburg hoopster, is second with 209 points for Eugene's Eagles.

Hot Tip NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—(AP)—A taxi driver, puzzled when a young man tipped him $10 at Grand Central terminal and told him to "keep your mouth shut," decided to check up. He went to the Park Avenue candy shop where the passenger had made a stop, and learned the store had been robbed of $250. "I figured something was phony when he came out of the store," the cabbie told police. "He had no candy."
