Lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor and the evening hours were enjoyably spent in making a bride's scrapbook.

Exchange Vows By Candlelight

Miss Jeanne Frances Dillard, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard of Roseburg, became the bride of Glen R. Miller, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of this city, at an impressive candlelight ceremony at eight o'clock Friday evening, February 14, at the Methodist Church. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of three hundred and fifty guests.

Three huge silver hearts, outlined with wide white ruffling, and topped by white satin bows and white carnation and acacia, formed the background. Tall, tapered white decorated cake was topped by a large lace bell. The bride couple cut the cake, which was served by Mrs. C. F. Meyers, Mrs. Raymond Puckett, Mrs. J. R. Clark, Miss Frances Hutchinson, all of Roseburg, and Mrs. Robert C. Snoddy of Honolulu assisted in the serving. Miss Ella Mae Davis, sister of the bridegroom, poured and Mrs. Bert Young had charge of the guest book.

Following a honeymoon to Dorchester House on the coast the couple returned to Roseburg to make their home on the Garden Valley road. Both the bride and bridegroom are popular members of the younger set. The bride is a granddaughter of Mrs. George Quine and the late Judge Quine, prominent residents of Douglas County.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Miss Ella Mae Davis of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Myers and son, Robert, and daughter, Carolyn, of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hirsch of Las Vegas, Nev., and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Young of Corvallis.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a floor-length gown of heavy white jersey, fashioned with a shirred neckline, form fitting bodice, long sleeves and a full train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a coronet of tiny white net shirred ruffled and a band of orange blossoms. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried round bouquet of gardenias centered with a large purple orchid and tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Robert C. Snoddy, nee Charlotte Dillard, of Honolulu was matron of honor for her sister and wore a gown of pale pink chiffon and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of blue carnations with matching headband.

Miss Fredricka Hamilton, Miss Betty Jane Roberts, Miss Marty Jennings of Portland and Miss Zoe Bates, Miss Betty Jane Cameron, Miss Fredricka Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Leland K. Wimberly and Miss Betty Jane Roberts, all of Eugene; Miss Marty Jennings of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Miller of Red Bluff, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Casey of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bridges and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stearns of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith of Reedsport and Sgt. Elwood Cox, of Lettermen's Hospital, San Francisco.

Both the bride and bridegroom, who were graduated from Roseburg Senior High School, are prominent members of the younger set of this city. The bride, a granddaughter of the late B. W. Bates, for many years publisher and editor of the Roseburg News-Review, attended University of Oregon and is now employed in the office of the Agricultural Conservation Department in the Pacific building.

The bridegroom attended Oregon State College and during the war served as a lieutenant in the air forces. He is now employed at the Joe Richard's Store in Roseburg.
