YONCALLA—The wedding of Miss Lois Earlene Brant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brant of Yoncalla (temporarily of Primeville), to Warren W. Harding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Harding of Hood River, was solemnized at the First Congregational Church in Eugene on February 1 at 4 o'clock with Dr. Victor P. Morris reading the service. Dr. Morris is minister in the Christian Church, also dean of school of business administration at U. of O. and is a friend of the family.

The candlelight ceremony took place in the church's beautiful auditorium which was decorated with huge baskets of heather and daffodils and with candelabra. Preceding the ceremony Miss Marjorie Reeves of Salem, a college classmate of the bride, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Miss Mary Grubbs, Eugene, at the organ. Miss Grubbs also played the wedding marches and soft music during the service.

The bride wore ivory brocaded satin with an inset yoke of illusion net. The gown was made with a train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a halo of orange blossoms and had been worn by her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. W. W. Wilson of Yoncalla, at her wedding 51 years ago. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid. Her lace-edged handkerchief had belonged to her maternal great-grandmother.

The maid of honor for her sister was Miss Leta Mae Brant of Yoncalla, a student at Oregon State College, who wore aqua tulle and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Joanne Brant, youngest sister of the bride, and Miss Beverly Lunney of Yoncalla. They wore pink and blue gowns, respectively, and carried nosegays. They also lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.
