'SEA SAGA' DANCE-DRAMA

Miss Ruth Anne Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, formerly of Roseburg, who is continuing with her dancing at University of Washington, is one of the featured soloists in a specialty number of her own composition at the Dance Drama, which is presented annually at the University Dance Theatre by Orchestras, honorary dance society on the university campus, of which Miss Ruhl is president.

The "Sea Saga" covers the ceremonial departure of the fishermen, life of the men at sea, the emotions of the women who wait for them, a storm at sea and the wedding of the skipper and his lady.

Two divisions forming the balance of the program include "Summer Sunday" and a "Jazz Suite." The former shows how strenuously the American enjoys his "day off" at the beach. He comes home tired with only a sunburn to show for his pleasure. The Jazz Suite is an abstract primitive number interpreting three of Gershwin's preludes and "Summertime" from "Porgy and Bess." Miss Ruhl is very well-known in Roseburg, having been graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and later working in the office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. She was one of the most outstanding dance pupils of Mrs. Paul Jenkins and participated in numerous entertainments and programs while residing here. She is a past honored queen of Roseburg Bethel of Job's Daughters.
