STUDY CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING

YONCALLA — The Yoncalla Women's Study Club held a luncheon and program Thursday afternoon in the Epworth Hall of the Methodist church, entertaining Mrs. Wm. Chandler, state president of Women's clubs, also members of the Drain Study club and friends.

The League room was festive with long tables decorated with bouquets of anemones, daffodils and lighted tapers.

During the luncheon hour, roll call topics were very interesting, presented by Mesdames Pinkston, Cockram, Houser, Kruse, and Rice in current events and problems of international relations.

A program followed the luncheon, in the main auditorium of the church. Group singing of America the Beautiful, Invocation by Mrs. Fred Reeves, Chaplain. Vocal duets by Mrs. Lathin Daugherty and Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey accompanied by Mrs. Bernice Merik. "Just a Wearying for you" and "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen."

A quaint original reading "The Bantam Rooster" by Mrs. Halubus.

Mrs. Dora Kingery, president introduced Mrs. Chandler, guest speaker. Her theme was "Ten Thousand Women Lift Their Eyes to the Sun." Mrs. Chandler attended the National Assembly last autumn, where she heard delegates from thirty one foreign nations speak, and pledge to do all in their power to unite the people of their lands for better understanding, human justice and lasting peace.

Mrs. LaFall Dickinson, National president of Women's clubs and reviewed much of her visit to Russia. Mrs. Chandler is a forceful and charming speaker, expressing it poetically. To hear her lifted our souls from the common sod to a purer air, and a broader view. She is unselfish giving full time to organizations of Women's clubs, so great is her belief in the power and influence of organized women for good.

Mrs. Maude Cowley expressed thanks and appreciation for the Drain Club for the opportunity to hear Mrs. Chandler.

Announcement of the next regular meeting of the club at the beautiful home of Mrs. Jennie Laswell was made.

Mrs. McDonald, and Mrs. Raphael Wise, assisted by the entertainment committee, Mrs. Ed Wright, Mrs. Bernice Mediki and Mrs. Don Brace, and guest assistant, Mrs. Lloyd Wise were hosts for the delicious luncheon.

Drain guests present included Mrs. Edna Kenney, Mrs. Maude Cowles, Mrs. Madeline Russell, Mrs. Fred Hunt, Mrs. Mildred Whipple, Mrs. Venus Davis, Mrs. Howard Woodman, Mrs. Sherman Chapman, Mrs. Harry Cooke, Mrs. Mary Cornutt, and Mrs. Florence Laird.
