The "Fits-It" Tailor
327 N. Main St., Room 4
ROSEBURG, OREGON

Since I have been here, several people have told me that Roseburg could not, or would not, support a really top-notch tailor who could turn out the finest of "bench-made" clothes, that is suits, slacks and topcoats. I don't agree with them. I believe Roseburg is ripe for a first class tailor. I have been cutting and making clothes for forty years. Everything I sell will be made right here in my own shop. I have a nice line of woollens now, supplemented with first class trimmings.
