Marry at Presbyterian Church

One of the loveliest weddings of the early spring season occurred Sunday, March 16, at the First Presbyterian Church when Miss Margaret Metzger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Metzger of Roseburg became the bride of Robert Ganz, son of Mrs. Jessie Ganz of Seattle and Nicholas Ganz of Portland. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of one hundred and fifty friends and relatives.

Huge white baskets filled with pale yellow and white stock and flanked by white candelabra holding white candles formed the altar decorations. Decorations at the church were arranged by the Umpqua Florists. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer W. Grow played softly on the pipe organ and James Brown lighted the altar candles. R. M. Church sang, "O, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Grow, who played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to take its place at the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a Princess bodice, sweetheart neckline, long close-fitting sleeves coming to a point at the wrists and a full train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a headband of orange blossoms. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, white sweetpeas, stephanotis and ferns tied with white satin ribbons.

Miss Frances Metzger of Portland was maid of honor for her sister and was lovely in a floor-length gown of pale pink broadcloth, white sweetpeas, stephanotis and ferns tied with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Donald Metzger, Roseburg, and Mrs. Floyd Taylor, Portland, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids and were charming in gowns of pale blue marquisette, fashioned with off the shoulder collars, short sleeves and full skirts. They wore matching blue gloves with blue maline head-dresses outlined with blue sweetpeas. They carried colonial bouquets of blue sweetpeas outlined with white satin ribbons.

Little Donna Metzger as flower girl was lovely in a floor-length gown of pink net. She wore pink mitts and matching pink head-dresses outlined with pink sweetpeas. She carried a basket of flower petals. All of the attendants wore single strands of pearls.

Robert Lee of Portland was best man and James Brown of Coos Bay and Herbert Brown, U. S. Navy, stationed at Swan Island, Portland, were ushers.

The bride's mother was charming. Song leader and soloist will be Alva Ferebee, of Eugene. Services will begin at 7:45 each evening, and continue through the week. Friends of Oakland and vicinity are urged to attend the evening services.

Since the first of January, Dr. R. L. Dunn has been conducting Sunday services for the Oakland Church inasmuch as they have no regular minister. Dr. Dunn will present the Easter ceremonies as Mr. Powell will be with his home church in Drain. It has not been determined who will be selected as regular minister for the Oakland Church, and until this is decided, Dr. Dunn will continue to supply there on Sundays. He is also now conducting a special Bible study class on Wednesday evenings, in Oakland.

ing in a floor-length afternoon gown of aqua trimmed in sequins. She wore long white gloves and her corsage was of pink carnations with matching headpiece. The bridegroom's mother was attractive in a gray-colored floor-length afternoon gown of crepe fashioned with sequins. She wore a flowered hat, long brown gloves and her corsage was of pink roses. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Booth of Portland, wore a black and white ensemble with a corsage of roses.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Grow played Mendelssohn's Wedding March at the church and at the reception were taken by Gene Powell of the Master Studio.

The reception followed at the beautiful Metzger home on Mill street. Mrs. A. E. Kent and Mrs. J. V. Short had charge of the decorations.

The bride's table, covered by a fine lace cloth, was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom standing under an archway of lilies of the valley and a large wedding bell. White roses, stephanotis and loops of maline formed the center bouquet, which was flanked by tall white tapers and miniature French bouquets of pastel-colored blossoms. Daffodils and acacia formed the bouquets about the room.

The bride and bridegroom cut the cake, which was served by Mrs. A. E. Kent and Mrs. Jack Towt. Mrs. E. R. Metzger, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. J. V. Short poured. Mrs. Allen Moore had charge of the many beautiful gifts and Mrs. William Fetter had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a blue suit with the new fingertip jacket, a white flower halo hat and white toe coat. Her corsage was of gardenias and an orchid. Following a honeymoon to southern California and Mexico, the couple will reside in San Francisco, where the bridegroom will complete his course as a mortician.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and business college in Chicago. Until her marriage, she was employed as a secretary at Buller and Buller in Portland. The bridegroom served in the U. S. Army in the African, Italian, French and German theaters of operations during World War II.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Harriet Booth, maternal grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Mildred Crozier and Mrs. Emil Oswald, aunts of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Taylor all of Portland; Mrs. Lucy Minton and Mrs. Gladys Brandon of Salem; Mrs. Jessie Ganz of Seattle, mother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Ganz, of Manzanita; James Brown of Coos Bay and Herbert Krone, U. S. Navy, Swan Island.

Mrs. G. W. Munson was honored on her birthday at a delightful party and dinner given by her children at the Charles Schulze home. A large, beautifully decorated and lighted birthday cake graced the table. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Munson, Mrs. Lillian Munson of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Munson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Munson, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Munson, and grandchildren, Margaret and Denny Munson, Lynett and Gary Conn; Georgia and Skipper Schulze and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schulze.

Lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Munson and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buswell.

An archway decorated with acacia and daffodils, with baskets of matching flowers and tall candelabra holding white candles formed the setting for a beautiful wedding March 8 at the Methodist Church, when Miss Bonnie Jean Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Matthews of Roseburg became the bride of Richard Buswell, son of J. J. Buswell of McMinnville. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the impressive double ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Miss Marilyn Feller sang "Aloes," accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Stewart, who played softly on the organ as Miss Jeanne Gregory and Mrs. LaVerne Hall, both in blue formals with pink and white wrist bouquets, lighted the candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was most attractive in a beautiful white gown of lace and net. Her veil was full length and she carried a white Bible topped by a large lavender orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons.

Miss Betty Joyce Ream, maid of honor, wore a yellow net formal and carried a yellow variegated carnation bouquet circled with loops of yellow net. Miss Dolly Henry and Miss Ruby Matthews were bridesmaids and both wore pink formals and carried pink and white carnation bouquets circled by loops of pink net. Little Shirley Ebersole was flower girl and wore a gown of yellow net and carried a small bouquet matching the maid of honor's.

Alfred Duncan of Willamina was best man and Bill Matthews, brother of the bride, and Donald Kruse were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a black suit with an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's parents were unable to be present on account of illness in the family.

The reception was held in the church parlors, which were decorated with bouquets and baskets of acacia and daffodils.

Mrs. Guy C. Perrin of Eugene served the beautifully decorated four-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. E. A. Perrin of Salem served at the punch bowl and Mrs. Ray Goltger cut the loaves. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. H. D. Simmons, Mrs. Catherine Horn, Mrs. Earl Henry, Mrs. Robert Harvie, Miss Joyce Quine and Miss Alyce Harvie. The gift table was in charge of Mrs. Herman Aydelott and the guest book was in charge of Miss Dolly Henry and Miss Ruby Matthews. Decorations were in charge of the Fern Florist and Mrs. R. R. Ritzman, Mrs. M. O. Ream and Mrs. E. A. Perrin.

Following a wedding trip into Northern Oregon and coast points and short visits with relatives of the bridegroom, the couple will make their home at Dillard.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School in 1946 and has been employed at the Inter-State Tractor Company. The bridegroom was graduated from Willamina High School in 1942. He spent more than three years in the U. S. Navy with overseas duty in the Pacific theater of operations. He is employed as electrician for the Industrial Electric Company of Roseburg.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Perrin and son, Richard, and daughter, Shirley, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Perrin and daughters, Kay and Patricia, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Duncan of Willamina and Miss Alyce Harvie of Eugene.
