To Rule As Queen Over 1947 Fete

Miss Doris Durch.

By a close vote Doris Durch, daughter of Mrs. Ada Durch of Elgarose, was chosen to rule over the 1947 May Fete. The two other candidates who were in running for the crown and who automatically become the senior princesses include: Jackie Goodwin and Pat Holmquist.

Princess Durch was born in Roseburg and has lived here since March 31, 1929. She has blonde hair and is regal looking. Her height is five feet seven.

Queen Doris' favorite pastime is riding horses, at which she is no amateur. She is also fond of dancing and skating. Her favorite food is that of any "all American girl." T-bone steaks. She dislikes people with no sense of humor.

She has participated in school activities such as F. H. A. and chorus. She is secretary of the Commercial Club and was a member of last year's home running, and has taken part in all inter-mural sports. Her ambition is to become a nurse and she has made arrangements to attend the Providence School of Nursing in Portland, when she completes her high school education this spring. When asked how she felt about being queen, she said: "The most wonderful thing that has ever happened to me." Schoolmates agree that no one is more worthy of this honor.

Pat Holmquist, like the queen, was born in Roseburg, March 28, 1929, and she too has blonde hair and she also plans to be a nurse, having made arrangements to enter Emanuel Hospital in Portland. Blonde Jackie Goodwin was born in McMinnville and transferred from Portland to Roseburg High in her sophomore year. Her favorite pastime is twirling, in which she took a major part this year. She plans to enter Lewis and Clark College to major in psychology.

The Junior and Sophomore princesses who will serve her highness are Henrietta Johnson and Pat Pargeter, Juniors, and Carolyn Kobernik and Shirley Helweg, Sophomores. These girls were chosen by a committee including Mrs. Broadus, Mrs. Moninger, Georgene Shanklin, Jackie Goodwin, Pat Holmquist, Duane Pope and Mrs. Neseth.

The May Fete, under direction of Mrs. Neseth, will be held May 24 at 1:30 o'clock at the High School gymnasium. The theme is that of "United Nations." Decorations and dancing will be superb, according to Mrs. Neseth. There will be many different varieties of dances, including Irish, Dutch, French, Norwegian, Russian, Viennese and Hawaiian. There will be a solo by Sue Hahn, accompanied by Leila Adams and three formal dances will feature senior girls and boys. Committees in charge include: Pauline Parrott, general chairman; Carla Taylor, chairman of decorations; Dolores Carr, chairman of costumes; and Shirley Ogle, chairman of the program.
