DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

How many timid persons ask for only a little from God, when much more would be granted them willingly, if they but requested it. Jesus said, "Ask, and it shall be given you." Let us use to it that we receive God's best, and not set our hearts wholly upon His lesser benefits. Though we may be ever so grateful for even the least of His gifts, Multitudes are God-fearing, but His Supreme Manifestation of love for mankind is the gift of His only Son for our redemption. This is the crowning gift of all gifts, and besides it all others fade into insignificance. As the view from the mountain top makes the valley's loveliest details fade away, the writer at fourscore can testify to the blessed presence and comfort of the crucified and risen Christ, who came to earth as a little child nearly two thousand years ago, to the inhabitants of this planet, who if faithful will receive a crown of eternal life and look for "a better country, that is a heaven."

There would I seek, more than thy gifts dear Lord
Thy would I better know
Behold thy face; clear mirror
ed in my soul
And in thine image grow.
Amen
