Engaged

Miss Susan Bradburn.

Announced at a lovely tea given Friday afternoon by Miss Mary Jo Extra at the attractive home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Extra, in Coos Bay, was the betrothal and approaching marriage—planned for late summer—of Miss Susan Bradburn, daughter of George M. Bradburn, and granddaughter of Mrs. Matt Gillespie, both of Coos Bay, to William O'Neal, also of Coos Bay.

Concealed in lovely camellia corsages, presented to the guests by Miss Georgianne Bradburn, sister of the bride-elect, were tiny announcements bearing the names of "Sue" and "Bill."

A pink and white color scheme was carried out throughout the lovely rooms and for the appointments of the tea table at which Mrs. Matt Gillespie and Mrs. O'Neal presided.

The bride-elect is very well-known in Roseburg, having been born here. She was graduated from the Coos Bay High School last spring and is a student at University of Oregon, where she is majoring in designing and resides at Susan Campbell Hall. The bridegroom-elect is a member of the 1947 class of the Coos Bay High School and a member of the winning team of the state basketball tournament. He will enter University of Oregon in the fall.

At the tea, the bride-elect wore a very lovely costume of metallic cloth jacket with black wool skirt, which was of her own design and making. The hostess, Miss Extra, wore a black afternoon frock; her mother was dressed in a blue afternoon frock; the bridegroom-elect's mother wore a black suit with a Nile green flowered hat and the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Gillespie, wore a brown suit with sequin trim and brown hat.

O. E. S. SOCIAL CLUB ENTERTAINS AT TURKEY DINNER

The Canyonville O. E. S. Social Club entertained the Masons and their wives and the Eastern Star members and their husbands at a seven-thirty o'clock turkey dinner Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall in Canyonville.

The St. Patrick's motif was carried out in the decorations and in the evening's entertainment. A number of piano selections were played before the dinner by Gladys Michaels. Slips in napkins, containing Irish topics, were subjects for impromptu speakers during the dinner hour. A group of Irish songs were sung by Le-Mary Hodgkinson, Pearl Montgomery and Ruth Jackson, accompanied by Betty Under. "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," was sung by Margaret McGee, who also led the group singing of "My Wild Irish Rose," which closed the program.

Gladys Michaels acted as mistress of ceremonies and Margaret McGee was chairman of the dinner planning committee. Evelyn Harry, Lillian Womack, Marion Gill and Dorothy Cox were in charge of the tables and decorations.

Appreciation for the evening was expressed by Carl M. Hill, worshipful master, for the Masons. Florence Hill, president of the O. E. S. Social Club, expressed a hope of making the dinner an annual custom.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kist, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Guy McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Marden Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Brad Wynter, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Blomgren, Mr. and Mrs. William Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gausle, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Poole, Mrs. Pearl Meserve, Jack Ullam, Claude Howard, Mrs. Lillian Womack, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Gabel, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weaver, Pete Ullam, Huron Brown, Le-Mary Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gaurke, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hodgkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Unger, Mrs. Byrle Sullivan, Mrs. Helen Couglar, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Michaels, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ullam and Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Hill.

Mrs. K. L. PETERSON HONORED AT LOVELY BRIDAL SHOWER PARTY

Mrs. K. L. Peterson, nee Ila Moss, was honored at a bridal shower given Tuesday evening, April 8, at the home of W. J. Mess in Umpqua park.

Lovely bridal gifts were presented to Mrs. Peterson from: Mrs. F. Goff, Mrs. G. Goldader, Mrs. H. Hickerson, Mrs. J. Lina-man, Mrs. C. Nelson, Mrs. G. Peterson, Mrs. T. Wann, Mary Peterson, and co-hostesses, Mrs. W. J. Mess and daughter Lucia. Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. K. Cohn, Mrs. I. Pierce, Mrs. L. F. Wilson, Mrs. Pierce and Carol Kerr.

The evening was spent in visiting and playing games.

After Mrs. Peterson had opened her gifts, refreshments were served.

BIRTHDAY DINNER GIVEN AT GUILLEY HOME THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley entertained at a very lovely family dinner party at their attractive home on the North Umpqua Thursday evening to honor their son, Donald Guiley, on his birthday. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Guiley, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. McGaughey and daughter, Marianne, and the host and hostess.

Marry at Baptist Church

Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson.

Mrs. Rose Kelly, teacher at South Deer Creek, and John Peterson, lumber grader for West Coast Lumber Company, at Myrtle Creek, were married at the Roseburg Baptist Church February 15 by Rev. H. P. Sconce in the presence of 131 friends and relatives of the couple.

Miss Mary Apra was the organist. Mrs. Joseph Deets sang, "Al-ways" and "I Love You Truly." The church was decorated with large baskets of carnations.

The bride wore a light blue suit with darker blue accessories. The bride's attendant, her daughter, Mrs. Hayden Laurence of South Deer Creek, wore the same color scheme but in a much darker shade. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Pete Peterson of Myrtle Creek, wore a blue crepe dress with matching coat. The bride's bouquet was a large orchid with satin streamers. Mrs. Laurence wore a corsage of gardenias and white rosebuds as did the bridegroom's mother.

Ushers were nephews of the bridegroom, Henry Peterson and Cecil Naas of Myrtle Creek.

Best man was Elmo Peterson, a nephew and pre-medical student at Oregon State College.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Oscar Gorrell, county superintendent of schools, of Roseburg, and Mrs. C. H. Bailey of South Deer Creek poured the coffee at a lace covered table, centered with a large bouquet of carnations and daffodils. Mrs. Walter Nimocks and Mrs. Roy Hatfield assisted in serving the coffee. Miss Thilda Johanson and Mrs. Clara Allen served the cake at another lace covered table.

Mrs. Hayden Laurence, Mrs. Henry Peterson and Mrs. Cecil Naas assisted about the rooms.

During the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were escorted to a table piled with gifts and were ordered to open them "mid showers of rice." The night before the wedding the Community Club of South Deer Creek presented the couple with a beautiful gift. The afternoon before, Mrs. Kelly came home from school and found Saint Valentine had been at her house and left a shower of Valentines that proved to be beautiful wedding gifts.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left on a honeymoon trip to coast points. They are now making their home at 202 Broadway at Myrtle Creek.
