Marry At Impressive Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Elden G. Walker.

At the First Methodist Church at S. W. 12th and Taylor in Portland, March 29, Dr. E. Craig, of Portland, became the bride of Elden G. Walker, also of Portland. Rev. Laurence E. Nye, of the First Methodist Church, and Rev. Willard Anderson of the Parkrose Nazarene Church, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd O. Craig of Drain, was given in marriage by her father. She was charming in a floor-length gown of white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, and short train. Her veil was fingertip in length. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid and shower of satin ribbons.

Miss Helen Hill, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore a pink gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, with the full net skirt over a taffeta foundation. She wore a strand of pearls and carried a nosegay of pastel blossoms centered with a yellow rose. Mrs. E. Odell Craig, Eugene, sister-in-law of the bride, was the bridesmaid and wore a crown of pale blue net over taffeta. She carried a nosegay centered with a red rose and also wore a strand of pearls. Arthur Pearson, Portland, was best man and F. Odell Craig, Eugene, brother of the bride, was the usher in the wedding party. Ushers were Mel Anderson, J. Cecil Sumner, Matt Small and J. H. Hunkum all of Portland and Jack Walker of McMinnville.

William Robinson Boone, organist, played the wedding music.
