Myrtle Creek Has Branch of WCTU

MYRTLE CREEK, Ore. — A new organization of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was effected recently, when Mrs. R. L. Turrell, one of the state lecturers of the organization, together with Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Douglas County president, met with a group of local women at the Christian Church. Officers of the newly formed union include Mrs. Jessie Hadley, president; Mrs. E. W. Powell, vice president; Mrs. Victoria Stuyempege, recording secretary; Mrs. Ethel May Weekly, treasurer, and Mrs. Ida Weaver, corresponding secretary. A very interesting set of Old Testament Bible slides was presented by Mrs. Turrell supplementing her lecture. The group has chosen the third Monday afternoon of each month as the permanent meeting date and everyone interested in the temperance movement is urged to meet with the group on April 21 at the Adventist Church. The meeting will convene promptly at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Marsh plans to meet with the group and conduct the service of installation of the new officers.

Invitational Golf Tournament Dated By Country Club

Roseburg Country Club will officially open its roster to take in 14 more new members, it was announced at the meeting of the board of directors last Friday evening. By vote of the directors the club ruled that the membership will remain open for a limited period of time, or until 14 applicants have been passed upon and admitted to membership. The major portion of the business session was devoted to detailed planning and committee appointments for the Roseburg

Invitational Tournament which has been announced for the three-day Memorial Day weekend, May 30, 31 and June 1. In attendance were President Al Henninger, Directors Fred Lockwood, Marshall Pengra, Emily Judd and Ken Bailey. Gene McElroy of the tournament committee was also present.

Golfers from all over Oregon are expected to participate in the Invitational Tournament. From 75 to 150 divoteers are expected in advance registration, and the tourney committee has selected key committees to make all advance preparation. An entertainment night on Friday, May 30, and dance for the following evening have already been tentatively planned by the entertainment committee.

Gene McElroy and his committee are anticipating good representations from the neighboring clubs of Medford, Marshfield, Eugene, Coquille and Cottage Grove, and a number of the state's top golfers from the Portland clubs. The following committees have already been announced for the event: Housing: Chairman, Ernie Butler; Jack Rogers, Bruce Elliot and President Al Henninger; prizes and awards: Ward Cummings, chairman; Maurice Hallmark, Ernie Pearson and Charles Kash; Publicity: Marshall Pengra and Art Pearson; scores and starters, Art Pearson and Fred Lockwood; entertainment, Betty Adams, chairman and Don Helljwell.
