Marry at Presbyterian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Leland V. Hall.

Morene M. Moore, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland V. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hall of San Marguerita, Calif., Sunday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the ceremony in the presence of 200 relatives and friends.

White and orchid lilacs, honey-suckle, sprays of yellow spring blossoms and pale pink tulips were used in the six large baskets forming a semi-circle at the altar. Satin ribbons of blue, yellow and pink were looped from basket to basket. Large candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles flanked the flower arrangement.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer Grow played softly on the pipe organ and accompanied Mrs. Lowell Russell, who charmingly sang "Always," by Irving Berlin and Mr. Russell sang, "Because," by DeHardt.

The altar candles were lighted by Carol Skeen and Wilma Melton, who wore pastel blue floor-length gowns and corsages of red rosebuds.

With the opening strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin the bridal party advanced to the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white French marquisette, fashioned with long full sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice. Her fingertip veil was edged with sweetheart lace and was held in place with a tiara of mother-of-pearl. She wore a gold heart-shaped pendant set with a ruby and opal, a wedding gift from the bridegroom. Her shower bouquet was arranged with stephanotis and pastel rosebuds with a shower of white satin ribbons knotted with sweetheart rosebuds.

Miss Betty May Quist of Roseburg was maid of honor and wore an attractive gown of pink net. Her corsage was white iris and pink tulips.

Charles Wendell Clark was best man and Orville B. Davis and William C. Lindsell, Jr., were ushers. Judy Benbow, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bellows, was flower girl and wore a blue floor-length jersey dress trimmed with white net edging. She carried a bouquet of pastel-colored sweetpeas. Judy took the place of little Kendelle Cairns, niece of the bride, who was to have been flower girl, but on account of illness was confined to her home.

The bride's mother wore an attractive pastel pink flowered afternoon dress with black accessories.

Chestnut street in Roseburg. The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1946 and for the last year has been employed as secretary at Lockwood Motors. The bridegroom served with the occupational forces in Tokyo and is now employed by William C. Lindsell in the logging industry.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. D. H. Hall of San Marguerita, Calif., mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. James Nebergall, paternal aunt of the bride; H. P. Moore, paternal uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Moore, Mrs. Howard Brown and Miss Barbara Witter, all of Portland; Mrs. Don Place of Shelbrook, Ia.; Tom Oldfield of Eugene and Mrs. Ralph Stewart of Bend.
