B. P. W. C. HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

A regular meeting of the Roseburg B. P. W. C. club was held last Monday night at the I. O. O. F. hall. Alvia Wetherell presided. The club voted to sponsor one scholarship for the 4-H summer school, this scholarship will go to some member of an active 4-H group, chosen on the merit system for outstanding work in his or her club.

Two weeks summer school, usually held at an institution of higher learning to provide extra equipment and skilled instruction, not only provides very valuable training to a recipient of a scholarship but will provide two weeks of enjoyment that will not be forgotten for years if ever.

Verna Carothers presented the year-book or scrap-book for the members to see before it is sent to the state convention of B. P. W. C. to enter the state contest. This was a particularly artistic book, embodying all printed publicity and memorabilia of all the activities of the year's work of the club, divided up into sections or departments, each one introduced by a fly-leaf hand lettered, and illustrated with a motif, seasonal or symbolic, done in an original black and white spatter-etch.

The annual election was held, the officers elected for the coming year being: president, Edna Helgeson; vice-president, Jean Whittenburg; secretary, Mildred Herman; corresponding secretary, Stella Spencer; treasurer, Avian Logsdon; and sergeant-at-arms, Etna Turner. Delegates elected were: Jean Whittenburg, Mildred Herman, Mattie Gosnell and Evala Russell, their alternates: Martha Perry, Dolma Grobe, Alvia Wetherell and Edna Helgeson are automatically designated as delegates by virtue of their office.

Evala Russell presented one of her voice students, Bonnie Bellows, a freshman in the Roseburg High School, who sang very charmingly, the following two favorites: "White Cliffs of Dover" and "Always". She was accompanied at the piano by Virginia Young.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. The delicate coral and gold of lovely tulle roses and ivory tapers arranged on mirrors combined to make an especially beautiful affair. Those assisting with the arrangements for the evening were Mary Chapman, Laura Iles and Edna Helgeson. Among those present for the evening were Clara Berg, Mildred Herman, Mattie Gosnell, Jean Whittenburg, Martha Perry, Verna Carothers, Vera Frederickson, Mary Peterson, Alvia Wetherell, Gladys Foley, Helen Emery, Stella Spencer, Dolma Grobe, Mary Chapman, Alta Simonsen, Laura Iles, Minnie Clark, Margaret Adair, Georgia Jambel, Florence Snedaker, Edna Helgeson, Evala Russell, Virginia Young, and Bonnie Bellows.

The next meeting will be held Monday night, May 12 at 8 o'clock at the Roseburg Armory. At that time the Emblem ceremony will be presented with the initiation and installation service.

Convention delegates and alternates elected included: Jean Whittenburg, Dolma Grobe, Mildred Herman, Etna Davis, Mattie Gosnell, Maryann Barker, Evala Russell and Martha Perry.
