Marry at Presbyterian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Robert George Norton.

Pink and white spring flowers formed the setting for the wedding of Miss Doris Ann Shoemaker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker, and Robert George Norton, son of Mrs. Edith Norton of this city, at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday, April 27, at 1 P. M. The double ring ceremony was read by Dr. Morris H. Roach in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

The altar was banked with bouquets of pink and white snapdragons. Miss Fredricka Hamilton, groomed in blue and Miss Jeri Johnson, wearing pink, lighted the white tapers in candleabra prior to the ceremony.

Mrs. Homer Grow presided at the organ and played arrangements of Tchaikowsky's music. The pews for the families were marked with white satin ribbon. Given in marriage by her father, Dr. Shoemaker, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin with full train and a finger-tip veil with seed pearl Juliet cap. Her wedding dress was fashioned with a tulle collar, full skirt with a bustle bow in back. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. W. H. Allen, who wore a white gown with flounce skirt and pink gloves and carried a pink and white colonial bouquet. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank Norton, who wore pink net and lace with a white colonial bouquet and Mrs. Eugene Powell, who wore a blue net and lace dress with a pink colonial bouquet. All wore sweet peas to match their bouquets, in their hair.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Frank Norton as best man and ushers were H. E. DeBernardi of Eugene and Ernest Barker, Jr.

The bride's mother chose a street-length dress of light blue crepe with pink accessories and a corsage of Cecil Beckner roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a black ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The wedding reception followed at the home of the bride's parents at 207 Blakeley street. Bouquets of pink and white snapdragons decorated the rooms. The service table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with the four-tiered wedding cake bordered with pink callamias. Lighted tapers were arranged on either freshments. Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, worthy matron, will preside. Members and visiting members invited.

Garden Valley Women's Club to meet at 2 o'clock at clubhouse with Mrs. Clem Schneider and Mrs. Peter Hanson, co-hostesses.

Mid-Week Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church to meet at 2 P. M. at home of Mrs. Lloyd Hill, 610 Hoover street, with Mrs. Carley Bennett as hostess. Members and friends most cordially invited.

Friday-May 16

Riversdale Grange to meet at 8:15 P. M. at hall for special Mothers Day program in charge of Ray DeBarnard and Lester Spencer. Refreshments in charge of men with R. B. Hampton, B. F. Chilson and E. G. Trozelle as chairmen.

Saturday-May 17

Dillard W. S. C. S. to sponsor bazaar and rummage sale in Roseburg in building just south of Douglas County State Bank on Cass street. Members asked to furnish clothing and food for side. Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. Hildegarde Briggs and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Fred Hamilton. The wedding cake was first cut by the bride couple after which Mrs. J. C. Hume cut the cake. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Sidney Domenico, Mrs. Donald Metzger, Mrs. O. A. Kennerly, Jr., Miss Fredricka Hamilton and Miss Jeri Johnson. The guest book was in charge of Miss Nancy Allen and the gifts were in charge of Miss Noreen Allen.

For traveling the bride wore a grey suit with black and white accessories and an orchid corsage. After the reception they left for Timberline Lodge, at Mt. Hood, Mt. Baker and Canada. They will make their home at the Shoemaker summer house on the North Umpqua at Winchester until September when Mr. Norton will continue his studies at Oregon State College.

The bride was graduated from University of Oregon and is affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi, social sorority. During the war she was in the service of the Women's Marine Corps and was stationed for some time at the Marine Air Base in radio communications at Honolulu, T. H. Since her return to Roseburg, she has been employed at the county assessor's office.

Mr. Norton is a student at Oregon State College where he is majoring in wood products in the forestry school. Until fall he is employed with the A. F. Saar, Inc. in this city. He served in the Mediterranean and Near East war fronts with the Army Air Corps in radio.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bride's brother, Bertram Shoemaker, who flew north from Los Angeles, Calif., for the ceremony. He was accompanied from Portland by his fiancée, Miss Lois Richards.

Also attending were Miss Maurine Herman, Mrs. Fontelle Evans and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McKillip of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dolan of Pendleton, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton of Oakland, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stevenson of Springfield, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; James Briggs of Seattle, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. H. E. DeBernardi, Sam Shoemaker, Fredricka Hamilton and John Ness of Eugene; Bob Shoemaker, Jeri Johnson and Claude Hicks of Corvallis.
