Horses in Beatty Circus Vie With Wild Animal Acts

Jack Joyce, master of equitation, presents the famous Morgan stallion, War Cloud, as a highlight of the Clyde Beatty Circus, in Roseburg, today.

Ranking with the wild animal appeal of the Clyde Beatty Circus showing in Roseburg today at the North Umpqua road grounds, is the galaxy of beautifully groomed high school and liberty horses presented by Jack Joyce, world renowned rider and trainer.

The star of this prize-branded aggregation is the famous Morgan stallion, "War Cloud." Moving with the grace and precision of a ballet artist under the guiding genius of his mentor, this aristocratic steed waltzes, marches, rumbas, and dances through the most intricate measures keeping perfect time with the music of Victor Robbins' celebrated circus band.

Famous horsemen and equestrians will be seen in outstanding high school and dressage numbers, and many other trained animal acts will appear on the fast-moving program along with an array of topflight aerial, acrobatic, and arenic artists. Performances will be given twice today at 2:30 and 8 P.M. with doors to the meagerie and horse fair opening at 1 and 7. Reserved seat tickets on sale today, till 5 P.M., at Roy's Men Shop.

"You'll be a king without a throne... unless you get that stalled motor started — pronto!"

GATEMAN: Better get this caboose on a siding, your majesty; the Limited's comin' through in three minutes. And take a tip from me; next time fuel this tea kettle with Chevron Supreme Gasoline. It's "climate-tailored" for this end of the line, balanced to give you sure starts and zippy pick-up in our climate.

HOT DOG KING: (later) Thanks for the tip on Chevron Supreme. The old wagon's got more pep now than a hot-shot freight barreling down-grade, and I haven't heard a ping since high-octane Chevron Supreme went in the tank. What'll you have, old timer, pickle or mustard? Your hot dogs are on the house from now on.

It's good going on
