Marry at Presbyterian Church

Dr. and Mrs. Philip M. Rummell.

Miss Phoebe Jane Hawthorne, Roseburg, only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Hawthorne of Myrtle Creek, became the bride of Dr. Philip M. Rummell, of Portland, son of Mr. Rummell, Sr., and the late Rev. Mr. Rummell of Dillard, Sunday, April 27, at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg. Rev. W. A. MacArthur, pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the impressive ceremony at three-thirty o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of 150 guests.

Huge baskets of pastel-colored snapdragons and stephanotis and tall candelabra holding white lighted tapers decorated the altar. The decorations were arranged by The Fern Florists.

Mrs. Homer W. Grow played softly on the pipe organ as the guests assembled and preceded the ceremony accompanied Leroy Hiatt, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Grow played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to take its place at the altar and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride, wearing a floor-length gown of white tulle, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and shirred form-fitting bodice. The sleeves were three-quarter length and she wore lace mitts. She carried a white Trestle with a shower of white satin ribbons and lilies of the valley.

Miss Argyll Crook, Portland, was maid of honor and wore a gown of pastel blue and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers. Paul Rummell, Dillard, acted as best man to his brother, Homer W. Grow. Bob Shoemaker, Don O'Neil and Jim Smith were ushers.

A reception followed at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hiatt at 404 West Douglas street. The lace-covered table was centered with an arrangement of pastel-colored mixed spring blossoms and the four-tiered wedding cake, which was cut by the bride and groom.

Patricia Riley passed the "dream cake" in a silver basket, which was a wedding gift to the bride's parents on their wedding day. Mrs. Lucien Cobb greeted the guests at the door.

Assisting Mrs. Hiatt about the rooms and in serving were: Miss Ruth Roberts, Miss Esther Brown, Mrs. W. A. MacArthur and Miss Alice Gerot of Eugene. Miss Ruth Hodson of Portland had charge of the guest book. Mrs. John E. Runyan and Miss Alice Ueland poured.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of gold crepe with white gloves and gold accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray figured afternoon dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of sweet-peas and roses.

For traveling the bride chose an aqua-colored ensemble with navy accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from Linfield College and has been engaged as a teacher at Roseburg Senior High School. The bridegroom is a member of the Good Samaritan hospital staff. Following a honeymoon to coast points, they will make their home at 8507 N. Clarendon Avenue in Portland.

Out-of-town guests were from Portland, Cornelius Hillsboro, Eugene, McMinnville and Salem.

Mrs. O. R. Hess is hostess to club at dessert-luncheon at 12:30.

A mixed bouquet of spring blossoms graced the lace-covered table used by Mrs. O. R. Hess Friday, when she entertained her bridge club at a charming one o'clock dessert-luncheon at her attractive home in Laurelwood.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Fred Lockwood and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, guests, Mrs. A. G. Henninger, Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. Frederick Chapman, Jr., Mrs. S. J. Cooper, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostess, Mrs. Hess.

High scores for the afternoon's contract bridge play were won by Mrs. Newland and Mrs. Porter.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MRS. O. M. BERRIE

Mrs. O. M. Berrie very graciously entertained her bridge club at a charming seven o'clock salad-supper Wednesday evening at her lovely home on East Douglas street. Gorgeous roses formed the decorations. Covers were placed for Mrs. Phil Harth and Mrs. G. W. Marshall, guests, and Mrs. Adrian Fisher, Mrs. J. P. Mottchenbacher, Mrs. S. C. Richmond, Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. H. H. Turner and the hostess, Mrs. Berrie.

High score for the evening's bridge play was won by Mrs. Marshall with Mrs. Harth winning the traveling prize.

MARY LOBEK IS BRIDE OF LAWRENCE BURCK, JR. IN CALIFORNIA, APRIL 26

Miss Mary Lobek, daughter of C. K. Lobek, both formerly of Roseburg, became the bride of Lawrence B. Burck, Jr., son of Mrs. L. B. Burck, all of Los Angeles, Saturday, April 26, at five o'clock in the presence of 40 guests and relatives at the Church of the Angels in Pasadena, Calif. Rev. Edwin Ross officiated.

The altar and room were decorated with colorful spring flowers. The traditional wedding marches were played for the bride party to take its place at the altar and at the close of the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a powder two-piece dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. E. O. Rands, Roseburg, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a navy blue afternoon dress with white accessories and her corsage was of pink carnations. Lawrence and Boyd Burck were ushers.

The bridegroom's mother was lovely in a dark blue two-piece afternoon dress with white accessories. Her corsage was a large single gardenia.

Following the ceremony, a Danish wedding feast was held at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. Lobek, in Los Angeles.

The couple spent their honeymoon at Sacramento, Fresno and Petaluma visiting relatives and friends and are now making their home at Pasadena, Calif., where Mr. Burck is employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad company.

The bride attended school in Roseburg until her senior year, when she went to San Francisco and completed her course at a business school. Later, she went to Copenhagen, Denmark, to join her father and also attended business school there. She worked for a year with the S.F.A.E.F. and in July 1946, returned with her father to the United States.

Mr. Burck received his schooling in Los Angeles. He served three years in the army, two of which were in the South Pacific Theatre of Operation. His name is listed in the Blue Book.
