every civic club, if you wonder what you might do, just contact me. The mayor made this observation: Roseburg is a small enough city, that many of the businesses are jointly operated and owned by both husband and wife...

The Zonta Club, on a local club level, consists of groups of business and executive women representing in every business or profession.

Mrs. Grant Clayton was pleasantly surprised Friday when friends called at her lovely home on Kent Creek to honor her on her birthday.

In a survey compiled by Dr. Dozier, the first objective of Zonta in the 1920's was education for the younger women. In the 1930's similar vocational guidance was carried on, offering generous scholarships.

Dr. Charles A. Edwards of Roseburg gave the invocation. Miss Philbin introduced the new officers of the Zonta Club of Roseburg: Mrs. Katherine Young, president; Mrs. Gladys Foley, vice president; Pui Meredith, secretary, and Grace Crook, treasurer.

Mrs. E. H. Verrell graciously entertained the Patch and Chat Club Wednesday evening at her home. Members enjoying the evening with Mrs. Verrell included: Mrs. C. J. Bradley, Mrs. Darley Ware, Mrs. E. R. Buckingham, Mrs. Curtis Calkins, Mrs. E. G. Trozelle, Mrs. C. Domenico and Mrs. D. W. Keasey.

Early in the 1940's the war took its toll on the original kind of welfare. It was found that many worthwhile services could be accomplished without money. In Phoenix, Arizona, certain members pay regular visits to the tubercular hospitals and sanitariums.

Formal presentation of the charter was made by Dr. Elizabeth Dozier to the new president, Mrs. Young. Miss Philbin presented Mrs. Young with a gift from the international president, Louise Grace, Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Derrick, Olympia, Wash., presented the club with an engraved gavel from the district.

Following the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be June 18 in the evening at the home of Mrs. Darley Ware.

Miss Mildred Jacoby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jacoby of Lookingglass, became the bride of Leroy S. Nelson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy S. Nelson, Sr., also of Lookingglass, at a beautiful spring wedding held at the school gymnasium Sunday afternoon, June 1.

The project was so well received that much outside help has been given. Corvallis has a Guam educational fund, also a visiting committee to contact lonely people in the hospital. San Fernando Valley Club, includes seven communities, one of them being Hollywood. One of their projects is the scholarship for "Winged Scouts" or girls interested in aviation.
