Marry at Christian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cummings, Jr.

Miss Patricia Gadow, youngest daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Gadow of Roseburg became the bride of Ward Cummings, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cummings, Sr., of this city. Sunday afternoon June 8, at the First Christian Church, Rev. Kenneth W. Knox performed the impressive double ring ceremony at two-thirty o'clock in the presence of 300 relatives and friends.

A very beautiful setting was arranged with a white archway of Madonna lilies and blue delphiniums flanked by white candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Clarence Trued played softly on the organ as the two candlelighters, Miss Joyce Quine and Miss Pat Sander, gowned in identical pastel pink dresses, lighted the candles. Mrs. Trued accompanied Jim Smith, who sang, "Always" and "Because." She played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to take its place at the altar and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional.

The bride given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Donald White, was beautiful in a gown of white duchess satin, fashioned with a full length train, close fitting bodice, designed with a high neckline lace yoke with tiny white satin buttons from the neck to the waist. The sleeves were wrist length. Her fingertip veil of net was edged with lace and held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped by a large orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons knotted with Stephanotis.

Miss Yvonne Byrd, maid of honor, wore a gown of pale green marquisette and carried a colonial bouquet tied with a shower of green ribbon. The bridesmaids were Miss Alleen Slattery and Miss Lorraine Losee, and wore pale yellow marquisette gowns designed to match the maid of honor's. They carried colonial bouquets tied with yellow ribbon.

Walter Jacobs of Green Acre, Wash., acted as best man and Albert Hooten and Jack Loomis were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a grey pin-stripe suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a black suit with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a large arrangement of sweetpeas and Canterbury bells flanked by tall white tapers. The four-tiered decorated white wedding cake was topped by a large white wedding bell and was cut by the bride party.

Miss Ady Mae Rice, Mrs. Leslie C. Cummings served the punch and Miss Iva Turner had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a pale pink crepe dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Following a honeymoon to California and back by the coast highway, the couple will be at home to their many friends at 1048 Corey Avenue, Roseburg.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and was employed at the Excel Dress Shop. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and during World War II, served in the U. S. Navy. He is now employed at Wilson Chain and Power Saw Service.

Mrs. Thomason presenting the devotions. The next meeting will be July 17 at the church parlors with Mrs. West in charge of the program on the topic, "To sow the good seed and bring in the sheaves rejoicing."

A picnic meeting has been planned for August at the McCulloch home with the Guild girls in charge of the program.

Guests were invited to call between three and five o'clock. Tall tapers and colorful spring flowers graced the beautiful appointed table. Mrs. Panter and Mrs. Keel poured. Additional guests enjoying the affair honoring the visitors include: Mrs. W. E. Buell, Mrs. R. B. Hampton, Mrs. M. M. Nelson and sons, Marshall and Gordon; and Mrs. W. A. MacArthur.

The Roseburg Baptist Women's Society met Thursday at the church parlors with the president, Mrs. R. D. Knigge, appointing the following chairmen for the year: foreign missions, Mrs. C. H. Wickham; home missions, Mrs. Maude Connelly; White Cross, Mrs. Ed Bayliss; reading, Mrs. Joel Fern; missionary education, Mrs. R. E. Crawford; prayer leader, Mrs. Charles Polrot; Christian friendliness, Mrs. John Clark; flowers, Mrs. Mabel Krohn; student counselor, Mrs. L. Ritchie; childrens world crusade, Mrs. Jess Kvidra; literature, Mrs. C. L. Smith; sentinal guild, Miss Martha J. Pockington; junior guild, Miss Mary Tomp; love gifts, Mrs. H. S. Cheek; Christian citizenship, Mrs. Coult.

MR. AND MRS. CRAMER ENTERTAIN AT POTLUCK AFFAIR FOR VISITORS

A very charming seven o'clock potluck supper was given at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cramer at the Facility Post Thursday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Doyle W. Smith and daughter, Nancy, and son, Robert, of Danville, Ill.
