W. C. T. U. MEETING ENJOYED AT KOHLHAGEN HOME ON WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg W. C. T. U. met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen, Sr., in West Roseburg with Mrs. Stephen Bistran presenting a very beautiful devotional service from Psalms I and Mrs. R. D. Knigge, president, singing, "Trees."

A short business meeting followed and committee reports were made, followed by a speech contest, with La Yonne Gibbons winning the bronze medal. A second speech contest was presented by Martha Thomas, Sylvia Rand, Dorothy Dale and Freddie Combs with Martha Thomas winning. At the tea hour, lovely refreshments were served to twenty members and guests by Mrs. Kohlhaugen, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Adair and Mrs. Ben Zeno. The table was beautifully appointed and decorated with an arrangement of roses and mixed summer flowers.

The organization will adjourn until September.

Miss Martha Hermann, only daughter of Mrs. Ruth Hermann, of Salem, became the bride of Lawrence White, son of Mrs. Wallace White, of St. Helens, Calif., at a very beautiful and impressive single ring ceremony Saturday, June 21, at twelve o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Attorney Charles L. Hamilton and Mrs. W. H. Richardson, at 417 S. Main street in Roseburg. Father William L. Blaker of St. George's Episcopal Church, performed the nuptials in the presence of seventy relatives and close friends of the bridal couple.

An alabaster improvised altar was arranged before the fireplace by the use of regal and calla lilies and other white summer blossoms, flanked by candelabra holding tall white tapers, which were lighted by Jimmy Clarke, cousin of the bride. A white satin prayer pillow was placed at the base of the altar and a gold cross graced the center of the altar.

As the guests assembled, Miss Gladys H. Strong played softly on the piano and accompanied Leroy Hiatt, who sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bride and groom took their place at the altar. At the close of the service, Miss Strong played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Attorney Charles L. Hamilton, was charming in a nylotte and lace wedding gown of traditional white. The front of the princess style bodice was fashioned with a criss-cross of wide lace. The long sleeves had lace insets and insertions of matching lace decorated the back of the gown from the waist to the end of the full train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a tiara of starched lace. She carried a bouquet centered with a large orchid, surrounded by stephanotis and loops and streamers of wide white satin ribbon.

The bride's three cousins, Miss Jane Clarke of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Miss Sally Clarke of Roseburg, and Miss Marian Carson, of Salem, were bridesmaids. Miss Jane wore a gown of turquoise chiffon; Miss Sally wore a colored rose gown of nylon tulle, and Miss Marian wore a white organza formal with sprays of pale pink and blue flowers. They wore matching white Juliet caps trimmed with pastel blossoms and carried old-fashioned nosegays of matching flowers encircled with lace and tied with satin streamers.

Frederick William Heid, of Napa, Calif., acted as best man to his brother-in-law and Jimmy Clarke, Jimmy Briggs and John Roberts were ushers.

The bride's mother wore an aqua crepe dress with white accessories, with a corsage of gardenias. Her three aunts: Mrs. W. H. Richardson, wore an aqua-colored dress with white accessories; Mrs. Arthur Clarke, wore a beige frock with pink feather hat, and Mrs. Allan Carson, Salem, wore a black and white ensemble with matching accessories. The three wore corsages of gardenias.

A luncheon and wedding reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Arthur Clarke, corner of S. Kane and East Lane streets. Huge waterlilies in silver bowls decorated the serving table and also the bride's table. The wedding and reception decorations were arranged by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Allan Carson, of Salem. The three-tiered white decorated wedding cake was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom and was cut by the bridal couple and served by Mrs. Carson. Mrs. Walter Barsch of Salem and Mrs. W. H. Richardson presided at the serving table.

Mrs. Lawrence Watson of Eugene had charge of the guest book and Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. John H. Robinson and Mrs. Hildegard Briggs, of Roseburg, and Mrs. John Carson and Mrs. Wallace Carson, both of Salem, assisted about the rooms. Colorful old-fashioned bouquets were artistically arranged about the rooms.

For traveling the bride chose a rose-colored suit with a Tuscany straw hat trimmed with a band of pastel-colored flowers. Her corsage was an orchid. Following a honeymoon to coast points in Oregon and California, the couple will make their home in Oroville, Calif.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Allan Carson and daughter, Miss Marian; Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. Walter Barsch, Mr. and Mrs. Dry, Miss Christine Larsen, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick William Heid, of Napa, Calif., brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Marie Stokes of St. Helena, Calif., a sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Wright Henderson and daughter, Nancy, and son, Peter, of Oroville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Newell of Newberg, Ore.; Miss Jane Clarke of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Watson, of Eugene.
