WOMEN'S COUNCIL HAS INTERESTING MEETING FRIDAY

The Women's Council of the First Christian Church met Friday at the new home of Mrs. J. R. Wilson at 137 North Kane street. The meeting was held one week earlier than the scheduled date so as not to conflict with the annual state Christian Missionary convention at Turner, Ore.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Emma Beckley, the program director, Mrs. Elsie Coffell, conducted the business session. It was voted to buy several books for the Mission group library. The devotion on the subject, "There is a way" were conducted by Mrs. W. H. Carter. The study program followed with several informal discussions. Mrs. Pearl Anderson talked on the five current revolutions in India; Mrs. J. R. Wilson, mission librarian, cited a few related incidents from the basic text, "Verdict of India" by Beverly Nichols, British journalist. Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, who was appointed to attend the convention at Turner, was happily surprised with a cash gift.

Roses and red and white candles decorated the lace-covered tea table and Mrs. Wilson served a charming dessert-luncheon to: Mrs. Elsie Coffell, Mrs. Anna Abel, Mrs. Pearl Anderson, Mrs. Lucia Ingels, Mrs. Mathis, Mrs. Mable P. Taylor, Mrs. W. H. Carter and Mrs. Edith S. Ackert.

The new officers will be installed at the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Mable P. Taylor on Roberts street. New officers include: president, Mrs. Emma Beckley; vice-president, Mrs. Josie Pfaff; secretary, Mrs. Helen Sanders; treasurer, Mrs. Marguerite Munson. Reports of the convention will also be presented.

GLENGARY SEWING CLUB HAS LUNCHEON AND BUSINESS MEETING

The Glengary Sewing Club met for a delightful one o'clock luncheon and business meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Mae Schaffer. Covers were placed for ten members and a guest, Mrs. Ruth McManis.

The club presented the gift of a stroller to Mrs. Vera McGehehey. The McGeheheys recently announced the birth of a baby daughter.

The club voted to ask the new members in the Glengary community to join the club. Names will be drawn at the next business meeting. The club prize for the day was won by Mrs. F. L. Betts with Mrs. Mabel Wilson winning the contest prize and Mrs. Mae Sinsley receiving the consolation prize. The meeting was conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. Karl Kuhn, with Mrs. Mae Sinsley acting as secretary in the absence of the president and club secretary.

Plans were made for a picnic to be held Sunday, July 20, the place and time of which will be announced later.

JOLLY CIRCLE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE AFTERNOON MEETING

Mrs. Bud Manning and Mrs. R. D. Manning entertained the Jolly Circle Club at a very enjoyable affair Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Millard Manning. Talisman roses and multi-colored snapdragons were used to decorate the room.

The white elephant auction was presided over by Mrs. Millard Manning. Delightful refreshments were served by Miss Marine Doerner, a guest, and the following members: Mrs. J. B. Follen, Mrs. Arthur Hillman, Mrs. Virgil Lynn, Mrs. Verney Sanders, Mrs. Oakley Bibby, Mrs. Floyd Simpson, Mrs. Wesley St. Peter, Mrs. Freeman Williams, Mrs. Ralph St. Peter, Miss Evelyn Bowen, Mrs. Millard Manning and the hostesses, Mrs. Bud Manning and Mrs. R. Marry at Eugene, June 21

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle M. Hutson.

Of interest to Yoncalla and vicinity is the wedding of Miss Lyle M. Hutson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brant of Yoncalla, to Lyle M. Hutson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hutson of Parkdale, which was solemnized at the First Congregational Church in Eugene, at 2:30 o'clock June 21 with Dr. Victor P. Morris reading the service.

The candlelight ceremony took place in the auditorium which was decorated with baskets of white eladioli and pink carnations and lighted tapers in tall candelabra. The candles were lighted by two college classmates of the bride, Miss Jean Wilcox and Miss Janet Lindfors of Corvallis, both dressed in pink bouffant gowns.

Proceeding the ceremony Miss Marjory Reeves of Salem sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Chester Earls at the organ. Mr. Earls also played the wedding marches.

The bride wore ivory brocaded satin with a yoke of illusion, long sleeves, and a train. The gown was the same one as worn by the bride's sister at her wedding in February (Mrs. Warren W. Harding). The bride's fingertip veil was held in place by a halo of orange blossoms which had been worn by her maternal grandmother at her wedding 51 years ago. The late Mrs. W. W. Wilson of Yoncalla. Her lace-edged handkerchief had belonged to her maternal great-grandmother. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Warren W. Harding (Lois Brant) of Springfield, who wore a dress in dark aqua faille, made with a bateau neckline and bustle back. Mrs. Harding carried a nosegay of sweetpeas and sweetheart roses.

Miss Joanne Brant of Yoncalla was bridesmaid for her sister. She wore a pink taffeta gown in Before an altar, decked with regal lilies and white hydrangeas, in the garden of her parents' home on Melrose road, Miss Eleanor Louise Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel D. Scott, became the bride of Elmer Roland Cone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Cone of Cottage Grove, Sunday afternoon, June 29, at a five o'clock wedding. Rev. Frank E. Brown of Cottage Grove read the double-ring ceremony before an assembly of about sixty relatives and close friends of the couple.

Proceeding the ceremony, recordings of "I Love You Truly," "Always" and "Because" were heard and with the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bridal party was admitted to the garden through a white arched gateway, led by little Miss Rosalee McCully, cousin of the bride, and approached the altar through an aisle bordered by fragrant Croft lilies and laurel greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the dark-haired bride was radiant in a long-waisted white marquisette period gown with short train. The gown was fashioned with a lace yoke and long sleeves. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held in place by a plumed coronet of lace. She carried a spray of white gladioli florets arranged with net pom-poms centered by red rosebuds.

Mrs. Kelly Johnson of Eugene was matron of honor and Miss Enid Good of San Francisco was bridesmaid. Both wore floor-length marquisette frocks in shades of rose made with contrasting shoulder-length veils falling from a Juliet cap fastened with pearl pins. They carried nosegays of carnations and rosebuds matching their headresses.

Flower-girls were the small nieces of the groom, Janet and Nancy Cone of Cottage Grove who wore delicate pink and blue dotted Swiss dresses. Proceeding the bride, they scattered rose petals from small baskets, which they carried.

Leslie Cone, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Robert M. Scott of San Francisco, brother of the bride, with Kelly Johnson of Eugene ushered.

After the ceremony the bridal
