Club to Picnic Sunday—The Glangary Sewing Club members and their families are invited to enjoy a picnic affair Sunday, July 20, beginning at 10 A. M. at Kiwanis Park. Those attending are asked to bring a basket dinner and their own table service.

Country Club Women to Meet—The Roseburg Country Club Women will hold a white elephant golf tournament Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the club course. The luncheon will be served at the clubhouse at 12:30 o'clock and the weekly contract bridge play will begin promptly at 1:30 o'clock.

Place Improved—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Dunham, who reside near the Cavitt Creek bridge on Little River, have had new gates made of peeled poles added to their place during the last few days. The Dunhams have a fine yard of flowers and shrubbery. They have been having additional land cleared lately. The new gates were built by B. Taylor.

Back From California—Mrs. C. D. Glenn has returned to her home at Glendale, following a stay at Taft, Calif., visiting her husband, who is hospitalized there following injuries suffered while working in the oil fields. He is reported to be much improved and expects to be able to leave the hospital in a short time.

Return to Salem—Mr. and Mrs. William Loomis and daughter, Beverly, have returned to their home in Salem, following a few days in Roseburg visiting Mr. Loomis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Loomis. Bill was recently appointed supervisor of the trades and industries division in the vocational education department at Salem.

To Attend Reunion—Rev. Charles A. Edwards leaves Thursday for Portland, where he will attend a reunion of Oregon and Washington alumni of University of Denver, from which he was graduated 50 years ago. He will be accompanied by Robert Shephard, who with his brother, John, will enter the university this fall. A business aim of the reunion, which will be held at the Heathman Hotel, will be the launching of participation in a drive to raise $15 million to enlarge the university for the accommodation of an anticipated heavy increase in enrollment.

Wants Home From Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Wands have returned to their home on East Douglas street in Roseburg, following a four weeks vacation trip through the northern states to Milwaukee, Wis., where they visited friends and enjoyed a side-trip to Land O' Lakes in southern Minnesota. They visited in Iowa and Illinois and stopped over at Cozad, Neb., to visit Mr. Wands' mother, Mrs. M. J. Wands, and his sister, Mrs. Ray Wands. They visited points of interest in Wyoming en route home. Mr. Wands returned to his work at the Consolidated Freight Ways Monday.

Vacations—Mrs. Walter Diller, employee of the Commercial Abstract Company, has been spending the last two weeks enjoying a vacation.

Leave for Reunion—Mrs. Viola Cheek and son, Roland, of Roseburg left Tuesday for Texas to attend a family reunion. They plan to be gone for a month.

Upon their return to Oregon, Miss Freeman will remain in Portland to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lundeen, and family, former Roseburg residents. The Savages will return here August 1. Miss Freeman came west last week to attend the wedding of her brother, Berkeley Freeman, to Patricia Ann Savage, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Savage.

Umpqua Chiefs to Play Grants Pass Sunday

Roseburg's Umpqua Chiefs dropped down the league ladder last weekend in Southern Oregon league play but have a good chance to retain defense of their 1946 title Sunday when they take on Grants Pass Merchants.

Tri-City, which dumped an erroring Roseburg nine 10-1, travels to Crescent City Sunday.

Other conference action last Sunday saw Hill's Loggers win over Ashland, 6-5, in a ninth inning rally; Central Point trounced Medford's Rogues, 13-5, and Grants Pass kept up their winning ways in taking Crescent City, 10-2.

Sunday's game marks the last Umpqua Chief game on Finlay Field until August 10, when they play host to Ashland.
