Marry at Church Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Odland.

YONCALLA—Tall baskets of white and yellow gladioli and candelabra formed a beautiful setting for the wedding of Ada Mae (Rusty) Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nathan Sparks of Yoncalla, to Theodore Odland, son of Mrs. Pearl Odland of Portland. The ceremony took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, July 5, at the Yoncalla Methodist Church. The altar of the church was banked with large bouquets of white hydrangea, with baskets of yellow French daisies in the windows with lighted tapers. The railing of the altar was banked with cedar boughs and short lighted tapers.

Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor of the Roseburg Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. Fred Hunt, pastor of the Yoncalla Methodist Church, in the presence of a hundred friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of frosted taffeta, made with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Tiny white buttons were used to the waistline in the back, where the long train fell from a bustle effect. Her only ornament was a string of pearls. The finger-length veil of illusion was held in place with a Mary Stuart headpiece, dotted with seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow rosebuds and satin ribbon.

Little Carol Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Abbott, dressed in a light blue taffeta formal gown carried the train.

Mrs. Carrie Berry of Williamsville, Missouri, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a ruffled and net dress of pale pink and carried an old fashioned mosaic bouquet of sweetpeas.

Mrs. John Sparks, Jr., in a pale yellow gown carrying an old fashioned nosegay of white sweetpeas, Miss Janice Whipple of Roseburg and Mrs. Jimmie Barrows of McMinnville all dressed in light pink formal and carrying nosegays of pink sweetpeas, were bridesmaids. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. George Hughes and Miss Beverly Hatfield dressed

ALICE MAY BECK IS MARRIED JULY 9TH TO DELMER F. HEITZER

Miss Alice May Beck, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Einar A. Beck, became the bride of Delfer F. Heitzer, son of Mrs. Bertha Wagoner, at a lovely double ring ceremony held at the home of the bride's parents on Miller's Lane Wednesday evening, July 9. Rev. W. A. Sylvester, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, performed the nuptials at eight o'clock in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends of the couple.

An improvised altar formed with huge baskets of coral and white gladioli, with a candelabra of candelabra and tall white tapers, was used for the wedding setting. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Elmer Ellis, pianist, played, "O Promise Me" as the tapers were lighted by Mr. Beck. Mrs. Ellis played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the wedding party to advance to the altar. During the ceremony, she softly played, "I Love You Truly" and "Always," and the close of the service, played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, Princess bodice, full skirt and long train. Her lace-trimmed fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible (a gift of Mrs. Ellis) topped with a gardenia spray arranged with white ribbons. Einar Beck, small brother of the bride, was train bearer.

Mrs. Robert Covington, as matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of white net and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Jaydee Harrington acted as best man.

The bride's mother wore a soldier blue crepe dress and a corsage of American beauty rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray dress with a corsage of American beauty rosebuds. A reception and wedding supper followed the service and was held in the banquet room of Kennedy's Dutch Mill, at which time the bridal couple cut the beautifully decorated wedding cake.

For traveling the bride chose a light brown gaberdine suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Following a honeymoon to northern coastal points of interest, the couple will be at home to their friends at Miller's Lane.

The bride was graduated from Port Angeles, Wash., High School and is employed in the office at the F. W. Woolworth store in Roseburg. She has resided here for the last year and a half. The bridegroom attended school in Roseburg and during the war served with the U. S. Navy. He received his honorable discharge from service in February 1946 and is now employed at the Hartwood Lumber Company.

Those attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Einar Beck and son, Einar; Mrs. Bertha Wagoner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Jaydee Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rose, Mrs. Elmer Ellis, Miss

Marry at Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Estes.

Miss Margaret Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Jones, Lookingglass star route, Roseburg, became the bride of Ray Estes, of Spokane, at an impressive ceremony June 30 at eight-thirty o'clock in the evening at the Church of the Open Bible. Rev. DeLoss Crook performed the ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

Ferns formed the large background, which was centered with a heart-shaped arrangement of lilies, flanked by tall candles in candelabra.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Les Flaherty sang "Always" and Glenn Hodges sang "Love of God," accompanied by Mrs. DeLoss Crook, who also played, "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a floor-length gown of white satin, fashioned with a train, long sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her lace-trimmed fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses centered with a large orchid and tied with white satin loops and streamers.

Mrs. Cecil Dye was matron of honor and wore a gown of blue net and taffeta. She carried a bouquet of roses and sweetpeas tied with matching ribbon. She wore a band of white carnations in her hair. Miss Betty Jean Jones, sister of the bride, and Miss Bernice May Henry, a cousin, were bridesmaids.
