Marries In Portland

Mrs. James Bailey.

An all-white background fashioned from gladioli formed the decorations for the very beautiful wedding ceremony of Miss Suzanne Wiles, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wiles of Portland, Sunday, July 13, when she became the bride of James Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bailey of Eugene, at the attractive apartment Wiles home in Portland at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a pastel green-colored suit. She carried a white Bible, topped by a spray of white roses and stephanotis. There were no attendants. Both the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore attractive summer frocks with corsages of gardenias.

Preceding the wedding, Miss Naomi Scott, Roseburg, aunt of the bride, played as a violin solo, "I Love You Truly," and played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride's party to advance to the improvised altar.

A wedding reception followed, at which time the beautifully decorated and tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bridal couple, was cut by the bride and bridegroom. Following the reception, the couple left for Timberline Lodge on their honeymoon. They later took the plane for Oakland, California, where they will make their home and the bridegroom will resume his studies at the Commercial Art School.

Those attending the wedding were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wiles; her brother, Jack Wiles of San Francisco; her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Wiles, of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson Scott, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bailey, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allison of Eugene; Mrs. Beulah Patterson of San Francisco and Miss Naomi Scott and Miss Helen Casey of Roseburg.

The bride is well-known in Roseburg, having been graduated from Roseburg Senior High School with the class of 1946. She was active in school activities and after being graduated, attended University of Oregon the last year.
