were just helping the war effort. More contracts, more munitions. More munitions, more power to wage war. And so on.

Not in defense of them, but in the interest of clear thinking, it is true that money was being thrown around like dirt. On every hand, we saw evidence of waste and extravagance.

What's a few more dollars? That is the way we came to think of it. It may have been the way May and the Garsons came to think. It is easy to fall into the rut of bad thinking.

But the shining truth is that NOTHING can excuse corruption—and taking, or giving, a bribe to get contracts from your government that can't be got by sound, honest methods is corruption in its lowest form.

It is a humiliating development, anyway you look at it. THERE is another upsetting circumstance in connection with this May-Garson business.

May stands before the court and proclaims his COMPLETE INNOCENCE. He says: "I stand before the court today with a clear, clean conscience. I never violated a law as far as I know in the 72 years of my life. I never received a dollar directly or indirectly that was not honestly earned or justly due."

That brings up a confusing angle of our modern life—in which we so greatly NEED the truth. What is the truth? Who is the liar?

CONFUSION destroys confidence. Without confidence, you can't go ahead. If you don't go ahead, you slip back. There are many things in this world that are wrong. The difficulty we find in drawing the line between propaganda and truth is one of them.

NEED FOR ENERGY

By CHARLES V. STANTON

United States Senator Guy Cordon appears to be nearing victory in his drive to secure restoration of funds necessary for extension of transmission lines from Bonneville into Reedsport and Coos Bay, as well as elsewhere in Oregon and Washington.

The Bonneville fight has been a particularly vicious one and had the unusual aspect of a Senator challenging the motives of a Representative from his own state.

Bonneville has many detractors. Some persons have a personal dislike of the Administrator and his methods. They would cut appropriations and cripple operations because of their disapproval of the Administrator.

Obviously disapproval of the administrator and his methods should not be permitted to cripple service by a needed public utility. Stockman has denied his attitude is governed by his differences with Administrator Raver or by personal pique.

Nor are we sympathetic with those who would oppose extension of transmission lines. While our personal opinions favor the free enterprise system over public ownership of utilities, nevertheless public power is here and here to stay.

While we realize that The California Oregon Power Company is striving energetically to obtain materials and supplies with which to extend and improve its service, the demand is greater than the company can handle.

Construction of a transmission line by way of Eugene, Reedsport and Coos Bay would provide much relief in the area traversed and would permit Copco to channel more of its production into the central part of the county.

Industrial expansion in the Pacific Northwest will come in direct ratio to development of electric energy. As rapidly as our hydroelectric resources are made available, we will find industrial customers.

Senator Cordon's battle to save Bonneville's construction program is not "pork barrel"; it is only good business.

about 1,000 fans were on hand to witness the card. From many of these a roar of boos and jeers was leveled at Parks, whose only friend in the building seemed to be the ropes, to which he frequently pushed throughout the bout to escape perilous holds.

In a desperate attempt to take the Pacific Northwest junior heavyweight wrestling title from Herb Parks at the Roseburg Armory Saturday night, Tex Hager defeated himself in the third and deciding round when he injured himself so badly that he had to be stopped by referee Jack Poppenheimer.

Softball Games Slated Tonight Are Postponed

2ND HALF LEAGUE STANDINGS

Table with columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Elks 3 0 1.000, J.V.R. 2 0 1.000, Sutherland 1 1 .500, Pepsi-Cola 1 1 .500, Vets Hosp. 1 2 .333, V.F.W. 0 2 .000, M. Wards 0 3 .000

Tonight's double bill of soft ball, which originally pitted Vets Hospital with Squirt, and J.V.R. against V.F.W., has been postponed because of rain.

Rain again hampered softball play at Finlay Field last week as second half round robin play began, causing postponement of Sutherland-Pepsi-Cola contest Thursday and the Squirt-V.F.W. fray Friday.

Scherner's Squirts upheld their first-half undefeated record after the first week of second-half play in sweeping over Sutherland 3-2 and Wards 3-0, while the Elks, who wound up in fourth spot, jumped the gun on Vets Hospital, V.F.W. and Wards, for three straight wins and a shared spot on the circuit's perch.

J.V.R., one of the most stretched clubs of the league, had a perfect record marred in losing, 3-2, to Sutherland after edging out Wards, 3-2, but came back for a second win in dumping Vets Hospital.

Veterans Hospital, previously cellarized with Wards, pulled a surprise 15-10 upset on Pepsi-Cola last week for a single win against losses to Elks and J.V.R. Pepsi-Cola won their other game, edging out winless V.F.W. 8-7.

Bats of Williams, Walker Keep Bosox, Dodgers in Races

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer The pennant picture in the major leagues had taken on a new aspect in recent days all because of a couple of real professional ball players.

Look at the picture today. The Boston Red Sox, led by Williams, once again the "Terrible Teddy" of the 1941 and '42 seasons, have cut three full games off the New York Yankees' once seemingly insurmountable lead and now trail by nine and a half games.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, with Walker hitting with the same old gusto that established him as the "people's choice" in Flatbush, have opened up a seven-game bulge over the second place St. Louis Cardinals, with the Braves and Giants skidding eight games in the rear.

Dixie drove in three runs yesterday to help the Dodgers sweep both ends of a double-header from the Pirates in Pittsburgh, 8-4 and 11-4, and extend their latest winning streak to nine.

With Williams slugging a 420-foot homer in the first game and a double in the second, the Red Sox took two of the St. Louis Browns in Boston, 4-3 and 12-2. Hughson and Ferriss were the winning pitchers.

The Yankees lost a full game from their lead when they were held to a split in their double-header with the Chicago White Sox. After Newsum had won his fourth straight game in a 7-4 win, the White Sox came back to win the nightcap 5-4, when Appling doubled in the ninth against Page and came in on a single by Wright.

The Cardinals lost a game and a half to the Dodgers when the Braves, behind the seventh-inning pitching of Sain, handed them a 10-3 lacing.

The Giants staged a 16-hit attack, including Thomson's 19th home run, to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 12-6. The Cubs used six pitchers.

Oaks Win Twice To Cut Angelenos' Lead to 4 Games

By BILL BECKER (Associated Press Sports Writer) The Oakland Oaks, fighting to stay in the Coast League pennant race, nabbed another pair of one-run decisions yesterday to close the leading Los Angeles Angels' gap to four games.

The Oaks' downed the San Diego Padres, 3-2 and 7-6, while the Angels were dividing with Seattle, 8-4 and 1-5. The Acorns' southpaw, Bearden, edged Trelch in an 11-inning thriller in the opener, won as Van Robays doubled home Sabo.

Van Robays, the former Pitts-burgher, sewed up the second game, too, with a home run scoring Hafey in the sixth inning. Hafey also homered in the free-hitting nightcap, which gave the Oaks the series, three-one.

Other twin bills found the Hollywood Stars rising to a seventh place tie with San Diego by taking Sacramento twice, 8-3 and 5-1, and Portland squeezing into sixth by dividing with San Francisco, 2-1 and 3-0.

The Angels cooled off the red-hot Rainiers with a 14-hit attack including four doubles, two triples, and homers by Barton to take the finale on Makucki's second win in three days. Novikoff's homer helped the Suds pull out with an even break on the short series, two games apiece.

Hollywood, for the first time this season, bunched two route-going winning efforts from its pitchers as Ardiwoza and Albosta eached twirled five-hitters.

Portland made it three in a row by taking the opener, 2-1, on Reich's two-run pinch homer in the eighth. Liska gave up but three hits, fanned 6. The Seals pulverized the Ports with 13 hits, topped by Sheridan's homer, to salvage the last game.

All-Stars Chosen To Battle Negro Ghosts Thursday

Roseburg's second exhibition softball contest comes to Finlay Field Thursday night at 8 o'clock with an All-Star city nine crossing bats with the famous Iowa Colored Ghosts.

The Negro organization is reported to be packing fans into softball parks throughout their 1947 road tour, the first since 1941, and have a show that compares to the antics of the Broadway Clowns and House of David in basketball.

The Roseburg all-stars, selected from the entire league by Softball Association officials to provide the best competition for the ebony boys, will be managed by Fred Scherner, catcher. Their lineup includes: Joe Bruner, Kayvon Larson and Bob Bish, Pepsi-Cola; Swede Vang, Phil Laurence and F. Scherner; Squirt; Hopkins and Foy, Elks; McCallister and Ed Harvey, Wards; Sears and Clark, Vets Hospital; Graham, Brick Avery, and Bud Allen, Sutherland; Lovell Baker, Bill Shapiro and Ernie Alstrom, J.V.R.

Myrtle Creek girls nine, leading Southern Oregon girls Softball League play and undefeated this season, are expected to provide the Veterans Hospital club with plenty of action, having recently trounced a girls club of Eugene 19-2. The Hospitalmen play the lassies as a result of losing a recently played donkey softball fray.

Admission for the doubleheader is 75c and 30c.

Legion Post Needs Horse For Queen Candidate

REEDSPORT — "My kingdom for a horse," is the plea of members of Reedsport American Legion Post, No. 62, at loss to know how to accommodate their queen candidate, Jenn St. Onge, with a horse to ride at the Reedsport Rodeo August 9. A careful check of the membership reveals not one owns a horse. The big question: Who has a horse the Legion can borrow to relieve the prospective queen candidate of embarrassment should she be selected?

Anyone willing to donate the services of a gentle beast is asked to get in touch with Robert Sund, arrangements chairman. He reported he prefers no particular color, but insists on a horse with four legs and two ears.

Admission for the doubleheader is 75c and 30c.
