Vacation Inquiries to Oregon Set New Mark

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 21.—(AP)—California, Illinois, New York and Pennsylvania lead the nation in seeking Oregon vacation information, a check of the record-breaking number of 105,000 mail inquiries received since last October by the State Highway Commission travel information department reveals.

The 105,000 sets a new all-time record, compared with the previous high of 75,000 when the Golden Gate Exposition was a western travel magnet in 1939. Inquiries came in substantial numbers from every state in the Union and are still being received in above-normal summer volume, it was said today in highway department offices.

Steelworkers in Five B. C. Plants Walk Out

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 21.—(CP)—Picket lines were established today as steelworkers in five Vancouver plants went on strike following refusal of union workers to accept an offer from operators of a six cents an hour pay boost. The workers demand wage increases of 12 1/2 cents an hour.

Union officials said 350 men were on strike and that another 200 plant employees had refused to cross the picket lines.

Chinese Bandits Waylay U. S. Officer and Civilian

SHANGHAI, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The Navy announced Chief Petty Officer Orrin D. Perry of Portland, Ore., was beaten severely and a civilian employee wounded by 20 unidentified armed Chinese who waylaid their Jeep today. The Navy said the assailants, wearing "unidentified uniforms," dragged Perry out of the Jeep and beat him over the head with pistols and shot George J. Rott of Shanghai twice in the thigh. Both men were robbed. Rott told authorities he thought one of "the soldiers was about to shoot Perry."

Stanley J. Brint Joins Army Air Forces

Stanley J. Brint, 17, son of Stanley Brint, Lookingglass route recently was accepted into the Regular Army Air Forces at McChord Field, according to word from T. Sgt. Woodrow W. Halstead, commanding the Roseburg office of the Army and Air Forces recruiting service. Private Brint well known in Roseburg where he attended High School, is now receiving his basic training at Randolph Field, Texas, and will be given the opportunity to study a technical subject of his own choice when his training is completed.

4-H Winners in Bread-Baking and Canning Listed

Janice Roberts, Smith River Route, Reedsport, and Marjorie Zeller, Brockway, were judged county winners in the junior bread-baking and canning contests held in conjunction with the fall canning achievement day at Roseburg Senior High School Wednesday.

Junior winners in the bread-baking and canning contest are Carol Ann Buring, Daws Creek, and Ann Roth, Brockway. All four county winners will participate in state contests to be held at the State Fair on Labor Day, Sept. 1. Forty-nine exhibits of canning were on display for the canning achievement day and blue ribbon exhibits were selected for State Fair display. In Division I, the exhibits of Joy Zeller, Sally and Shirley Jurak, Brockway; Dorothy Jones, Canyonville, and Norma Nichols, Reedsport, will be exhibited at the State Fair.

Outstanding exhibits in Division II were Patricia Tuthill, Oakland; Ann Roth, Brockway; Carmen Dysert, Lookingglass; Joan Voorhies, Lookingglass, and Donna Wilson, Myrtle Creek. Betty Pyritz, Smith River Route, Reedsport, and Sandra Day, Yoncalla, exhibited the only Division III exhibits. They will be entered at the State Fair.

Two exhibits were displayed in Division IV by Janice Roberts, Smith River Route, Reedsport, and Marjorie Zeller, Brockway. Both were given blue ribbons and will be entered at the State Fair. In addition to canning exhibits, there were seven clothing exhibits, one knitting and one cooking. Judge for the day's activities was Mrs. Marion Christenson, home demonstration agent from Jackson County. She was assisted by Miss Dorothea Parker, Douglas County home demonstration agent.
