Ultimatum Given Stubborn Jews

LONDON, Aug. 21. — (AP) — Britain delivered an ultimatum today to the 4,400 Jewish refugees off France: Disembark by tomorrow afternoon or be transported to Germany.

The Jews are aboard three British ships which have been off Marseille for three weeks. They tried to land in Palestine a month ago from the immigrant ship "Exodus 1947."

A Jewish agency spokesman in Jerusalem called the news shocking. He said disembarking of these refugees at Hamburg would be "a crime against humanity."

The Jews said last night they would go on a hunger strike if they were not permitted to enter the Holy Land. They were placed aboard the three ships off Haifa after a battle with British boarding parties, and returned July 29 to France, where they began their voyage. They have refused ever since to disembark and have rejected a French offer of hospitality.

The Jewish agency spokesman in Palestine characterized the latest British move as "a fearful political mistake." An unofficial Jewish source said it probably would provide new impetus for terrorists in the Holy Land.
