"Miss Oregon," Jo Ann Amorde, standing, with her mother, Mrs. Archie Amorde, at the Piano.

Blonde and beautiful "Miss Oregon," Jo Ann Amorde and her mother, Mrs. Archie Amorde, will spend the weekend in Portland, where Miss Amorde's wardrobe will be completed for her trip to Atlantic City, where she will compete for the title of "Miss America."

"Miss Oregon," Jo Ann Amorde, and her mother, Mrs. Archie Amorde, were honored guests at the regular luncheon meeting of the Roseburg Zonta Club last Wednesday noon, at the Rose Hotel. The guests of honor were presented with lovely corsages and Miss Oregon was presented with a huge scrapbook modeled from a most beautiful piece of myrtlewood and artistically inscribed to match the burl with "Miss Oregon, 1947, Jo Ann Amorde." Miss Amorde, very lovely in a pretty new coiffure, in her charming manner thanked the club for their thoughtful gifts.

Mrs. Maude O'Bannon from Olympia, Washington, Zonta Club was a special luncheon guest. She spoke briefly on the objectives of Zonta and told of some of the many projects that had been successfully carried on in Olympia by Zonta. One that was of special interest to the local group was the supporting and sponsoring of supervisors for playgrounds owned by the city.

Members and honored guests present were: Katharine Young, Gladys E. Foley, Maude O'Bannon, Olympia, Wash.; Lois Baker, Barbara Settem, Grace Crook, Dorothy Teater, Iva Glanz, Purl Meredith, Emily E. Judd, Laura Iles, Edna Helgeson, Carmen Clark, Ora Caters and the honored guests, Mrs. Archie Amorde and Jo Ann Amorde.

UMPQUA MINERAL CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING ON THURSDAY EVENING

The regular meeting of the Umpqua Mineral Club was held Thursday evening at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. William Woods. Mr. Woods is president of the club.

During the evening, Jack Wharton displayed some beautiful specimens of "tiger eye" (petrified asbestos). Other mineral specimens were shown by Bob Housley and Mr. Woods, and Mr. G. Cleveland Taylor, mining engineer of Roseburg now engaged in operations in Southern Oregon, sent some interesting specimens of petrified wood.

The club is making plans to hold another local mineral hobby show this fall. It is planned to invite Mineral clubs in nearby communities to join the local club in giving the show.

Roy Rose and Everett Teeter have been designated as official delegates to attend the annual convention of the Northwest Mineralogical Societies in Seattle August 30-31, with Mrs. Manuela Hutchings as alternate. Other members who plan to attend are Mrs. Everett Teeter, Mrs. Roy Rose, and Mr. Woods.

Preceding the meeting, Mrs. Woods served a delicious dessert supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bond invited the club to meet at their home for the September meeting.

The club meets regularly on the second Thursday of each month, and anyone interested in joining the club may contact the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hilda E. Peterson, or any of the officers or members.

SURPRISE HOUSE WARMING GIVEN BOWMANS AT NEW HOME ON CALKINS ROAD
Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bowman were honored at a surprise house warming party Tuesday evening, when a group of friends called at their new home on the Calkins road. A lovely gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Bowman from: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. George Cluck, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Betts, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Page, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergh and Mrs. A. D. Hawn.

A delightful skit was presented by Mrs. Neal and Mrs. Cox, after which games and visiting were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bowman were honored at a surprise house reception followed at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mathew Gillespie, at 979 S. Fifth Street in Coos Bay. Two hundred guests were present. Erormous bouquets of yellow and white gladioli were arranged about the living room, while pink and white flowers were used in the dining room. A Chinese lace tablecloth covered the bride's table, in the center of which was the beautifully decorated wedding cake flanked by tall white tapers and low arrangements of pink and white flowers.

During the reception, William Stuart of New York City played piano selections and accompanied Robert Dunham, cousin of the bride, who sang, "Through the Years" and "Right as the Rain." Years," Fred Porter of Eugene, maternal grandmother of the bride; Mrs. R. C. Dunham of Ashland; Mrs. Georgia Hurt of Coos Bay and Mrs. Lew Wallace of Bellingham, Wash., poured and Mrs. George Bradburn of Coos Bay cut the bride's cake. In silver wrapped individual small packages, the bridegroom's cake was presented to the guests.

Miss Shirley Smith, Miss Janice Leverage, Miss Lucile Queen and Miss Joan Bennett presided at the punch bowl and Miss Janet Freitag, Miss Ginger Savage, Miss Ethel Southwick, Miss Helen Coats and Miss Myrtle Gorbett assisted with the serving. Miss Charlotte Asplund and Miss Charlotte Ann Johnson had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Lee Sundbaum was in charge of the gifts.

Miss Mary Jo Extra caught the bride's bouquet as she tossed it from the open stairway.

For traveling the bride chose a white gabardine suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

The bride, who was born in Roseburg, has been reared by her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mathew Gillespie. She was graduated from Coos Bay High School and attended University of Oregon the last year. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Porter of Eugene. The bridegroom was also graduated from Coos Bay High School. They will spend their honeymoon on an automobile trip to points of interest in California and Nevada, after which they will reside in Ashland, where both will attend Southern Oregon College of Education this fall.

The bride was the inspiration for a number of charming shower parties. Among the parties given in her honor included Mrs. J. D. Travis at her home; Mrs. R. C. Dunham and daughter, Mrs. James McLain of Ashland at the Gillespie home; Mrs. Charles Endicott and Mrs. Ether Schwartz at the home of the latter; Mrs. J. P. Dillon and Mrs. John Ferguson at the Ferguson home; Miss Shirley Smith and Miss Carol Handelin at the latter's home and Mrs. C. Wylie Smith at her home.

The Wednesday evening preceding the wedding, the then bride-elect entertained her bridal attendants at a dinner at eight o'clock at Ripper's Cafe in North Bend and a party for all of the wedding party and parents and relatives of the bride couple, was held Friday night following the wedding rehearsal.

Roseburg guests attending the wedding included Mrs. J. F. Barker and daughter, Mrs. Velle Broadway; Mrs. C. W. Wharton and Mrs. James E. Sawyers.
