Marry at St. Joseph's Church

Picture by Master Studio
Mr. and Mrs. James Shoenhard.

Miss Alyce Ellen Harvie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harvie, of Roseburg, became the bride of James Shoenhard, son of George Shoenhard of Azalea, at nine o'clock Wednesday morning, August 13, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Roseburg with Father Dunstan Keane performing the nuptial mass.

Pale yellow and blue summer blossoms banked the altar. The wedding music was played by Mrs. William Ponsonby, and vocal solos were sung by Mrs. Kenneth Rutter and Mrs. Lawrence Mullarkey, sisters of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a floor-length gown of ivory satin fashioned with a princess bodice with tiny satin buttons from the neckline to the waist in back. The bodice had a net yoke with high neckline. The skirt was fashioned with a full train. Her fingertip wedding veil was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book and rosary, a gift of the bridegroom, and a large orchid.

Miss Betty Ann Harvie, sister of the bride, wore a gown of pale blue taffeta with a tulle of white carnations and a wristlet of matching flowers. The skirt was fashioned with a full train. Her fingertip wedding veil was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book and rosary, a gift of the bridegroom, and a large orchid.

Lawrence Mullarkey acted as best man and Donald Mullarkey and Willard Ponsonby were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise blue colored suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Kenneth Rutter wore a black and white ensemble with white accessories and Mrs. Lawrence Mullarkey wore a blue and white ensemble with blue accessories, both sisters of the bridegroom, wore corsages of gardenias. Mrs. Ella Heribson, grandmother of the bride, wore a grey ensemble with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The wedding reception followed in the auditorium of St. Joseph's school. Asters and mixed summer flowers formed the lovely decorations. Decorations at the church and for the reception were in charge of Austin Welt.

The beautifully decorated and tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom and served by Mrs. Ella Heribson and Mrs. Al Jarvis, of Eugene, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Rutter and Mrs. Mullarkey, sisters of the bridegroom, served the punch. Mrs. Austin Welt assisted about the room and Mrs. Carl Duncan had charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were George Shoenhard, father of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mullarkey of Freeport, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rutter, Azalea; Mrs. A. Mullarkey and son, Donald, of Freeport, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ponsonby and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hines of Azalea; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jarvis of Eugene and Mrs. and Mrs. Ellsworth Goldstein of Jamaica, L. I., New York.

For traveling the bride chose a light beige tuxedo suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Following a honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Corvallis, where both are enrolled at Oregon State College for the fall term.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and attended University of Oregon for the last year. The bridegroom was graduated from Freeport, Ill., High School and served two years in the U. S. Air Forces. He attended Oregon State College the last year.

Mrs. James Arthur Peterson.

Gladioli and candelabra formed the impressive setting for the wedding of Miss Virginia Belle Carl of Woodburn to James Arthur Peterson, son of Mrs. John H. Kelly, of Bandon, former Roseburg residents, Saturday, August 16, at the First Congregational Church at Salem. The Rev. Mrs. Charles Carl of Pacific Grove, Calif., aunt of the bride, performed the impressive service at three o'clock in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Jean Hobson Rich of Salem played the wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Manton A. Carl, of Woodburn, was charming in a gown of white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, leg-o-mutton sleeves and bouffant skirt ending in a full court train. Her fingertip veil of tulle was held in place with a band of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped by a spray of white orchids.

Miss Georgia Gray of Seaside was maid of honor and wore a gown of rose-colored marquisette over apple green fashioned with a shawl draped neckline, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of Cord-lette dahlias.

Miss Margaret Domes of Rick-reall, wearing a gown of green marquisette over yellow and carrying an arm bouquet of lavender Queen Elizabeth gladioli, and Miss Evelyn Johnson, Salem, wearing yellow marquisette over green and also carrying Queen Elizabeth gladioli, acted as bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical in design to that of the maid of honor's.

Ushers were elected: Louise Young, president; Vivian Logsdon, vice-president; Minnie Clark, secretary, and Mattie Gossnell, treasurer.

September hostesses were announced as follows: Susie Jackson, Mamie Dimmick, Elsie Jackson and Carmen Clark with Ruth Plumer, Lena Poole, Effie Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor, Louise Young, Ona Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bowman and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gossnell.

Eugene Peterson of Bandon, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Jeffrey David Carl, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer and Warren Ward, Edward Johnson and Jack Bolter were ushers.

A reception followed in the church parlors immediately following the nuptials. Gladioli formed the elaborate decorations. Mrs. George Gray, Mrs. Stuart Johnson, Mrs. Max Coe and Mrs. George Leffler poured. Mrs. John Hann served the wedding cake and assisting were Miss Jean McKinney, Miss Violet McKee, Miss Vera Kocher and Mrs. John Hinderlie.

For traveling the bride chose a gray wool suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white orchids. Following a five weeks' honeymoon to points of interest in Mexico, the couple will be at home to their friends after September 21 at Iowa City, Iowa.

The bride was graduated from Oregon State College and Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill. She is a member of Alpha Delta social sorority. She recently returned from a year's tour of the United States and Canada. The bridegroom attended the Roseburg school and was graduated from Oregon State College. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity. He served three and one-half years in the army in the European and North African theater of operations and was honorably discharged with the rank of captain. He is now attending University of Iowa.

The wedding announcement plans were made known by the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mayor and Mrs. Marion E. Carl, of Patuxent River, Maryland.

and visiting were enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bailey, Rubie Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark, Minnie Clark, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dent, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Goff, Gertrude Hatfield, Ella Lenox, Vivian Logsdon, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Plumer, Lena Poole, Effie Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor, Louise Young, Ona Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Bowman and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gossnell.

Nuptial Mass Unites Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Watzig.

Miss Margaret Ann Reverman, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Reverman of Portland and Francis A. Watzig, son of Mrs. Hedwig Watzig of Roseburg, were united in marriage July 19 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Portland with the nuptial mass at nine o'clock being conducted by Rev. Paul Benedict.

Gladioli formed the all-white altar and church decorations. Emma Colurie, organist, played the wedding music and Gerald Weber and Gilbert Scherzinger, cousins of the bride served as acolytes.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a floor-length gown of brocaded satin fashioned with a fitted bodice trimmed with tiny satin-covered buttons. The bouffant skirt was designed with an overdrop of marquisette caught into place by satin bows. Her full-length net veil was held in place with a coronet of lace. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds and stephanotis centered with a large orchid.

Miss Florence Reverman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of dusky rose moire satin with a picture hat of matching color. Miss Nancy Reverman, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Cecelia Watzig, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids and wore gowns of aqua moire taffeta with matching hats of horsehair. The three attendants carried arm bouquets of deep pink rosebuds.

Walker Kasper acted as best man and Bruce Carter, of Roseburg, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and George Raab, were attendants. Robert Reverman, brother of the bride, and Theodore Weber were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a beige print ensemble with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray satin dress with a hat fashioned of peach-colored roses and crinoline. The bridegroom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Anna Kasper, of Portland, wore a rose-colored ensemble with matching accessories. Both mothers and Mrs. Kasper wore corsages of gardenias. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. George Raab, Mrs.
