Senator Bridges Removes Self as 'Favorite Son'

CONCORD, N. H., Aug. 28. — (P) — Senator Styles Bridges (R-N. H.) took himself out of the "favorite son" classification today amid indications that New Hampshire may become the nation's first testing ground for Republican presidential candidates. Bridges, who carried New England's banner in an unsuccessful try for the 1940 GOP presidential nomination, told a reporter he has asked political associates not to place him in the "favorite son" role next year.

Accounting Demanded in Coos Bay Land Suit

PORTLAND, Aug. 28. — (P) — A complaint demanding an accounting of the administration of assets of the Coos Bay Land Owners, Inc., and Tides Land Development Co., involving oyster beds in Coos Bay, was on file in Circuit Court here today.

Lee Davenport named as defendants in his action J. R. Barton, E. R. Errion and G. R. Mun- kers, Salem, and J. C. Hawkins and William G. Murray, Seattle. Davenport alleges he exchanged tide lands worth $5,000 for stock in the Coos Bay Land Owners, Inc., and that subsequently the trust fund and assigned the trust's proceeds to the tide land firm controlled by the Seattle defendants.
