Marry By Candlelight

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Dishman.

Candles softly glowing amid huge baskets of pure white gladioli formed the decorations for the wedding ceremony of Miss Florance Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clark, of Roseburg, and Craig Dishman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dishman of this city, August 8, at eight o'clock in the evening at the First Christian Church. Rev. Kenneth W. Knox performed the nuptials in the presence of 200 relatives and friends of the couple.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Gordon Stewart played softly on the church pipe organ and accompanied Mrs. Robert Dishman, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, who sang "Because" and "Love Eternal." Mrs. Richard Gadoway and Mrs. Charles Hough, dressed in full-length gowns of pink and blue net and wearing dainty wristlets of pink carnations, lighted the four tiers of candles at either side of the altar. Mrs. Stewart played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin for the bride and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a floor-length gown of white marquisette over satin. The gown was designed on princess lines with high neckline, bouffant skirt and fingertip length sleeves. A strand of perfectly matched pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, carried out the simple lines of the gown. Her lace-edged full-length wedding veil was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a large muff of white gladioli, carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Betty Clark, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was lovely in a full-length gown of soft blue with matching gauntlets and a braided headband. She carried a nosegay of pink gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Adair, Mrs. Ernest Radtke, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Wendell Clark and Mrs. Ernest Barker, Jr., who wore gowns of delicate pink and carried matching pink gladioli nosegays. Little Nancy Stewart, dressed in a floor-length gown of blue net, sprinkled sweet peas and rosebud blossoms down the aisle preceding the bride. Six-year-old Randy Hough, dressed in a dark blue suit, was ring bearer and carried the rings on a hand-made white satin pillow. Robert Dishman, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Charles Clark, Wendell Clark, Charles Casey and Harry Pargeter were ushers.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors. The four-tiered wedding cake was artfully decorated in white with blue and silver trim and topped by a miniature wedding bell. The table was covered by a hand-crocheted cloth, loaned for the occasion by Miss Betty Clark. Mrs. Robert Laursen, of Corvallis, and Miss Joy Wampler, wearing similar gowns of white jersey with white carnation corsages, served the cake and punch. Donald Clark, youngest brother of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Sam Lewis of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dishman of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laursen of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Radtke of Dunsinville, Calif.

For traveling the bride chose a lovely two-piece, dove gray dressmaker suit with pink and white accessories. Following a honeymoon to Wallowa Lake and Portland, the couple returned to Roseburg, where they are now at home to their friends.

The bride was graduated from high school in Wyoming and has resided here for the last two and a half years. She has been employed by the Umpqua Plywood Company. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and served as an instructor in the U. S. Army Air Forces for three and one-half years.
