Marry at Presbyterian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Garrett.

One of the loveliest weddings of the season was solemnized at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, August 24th, when Miss Doris Dunning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Patrick of Roseburg became the bride of Bobby J. Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Garrett of Roseburg. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive nuptials at a double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the presence of two hundred relatives and friends.

A white archway covered with ivy and ferns at the base with a group of white bells tied with white satin ribbon was placed in the center of the archway. Large baskets of white gladioli and candleabra holding tall white cathedral candles flanked the flower archway.

The bridal aisle and pews for the families were marked with large white satin bows. Decorations were in charge of Lillie's Flower Shop.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Homer Grow played softly on the pipe organ and accompanied Ralph Church, who sang, "Because" by De Hardlot and "I Love You Truly" by Grieg.

The candles were lighted by Mrs. E. L. Dwight, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Iva Turner, dressed in full length gowns of pink and blue marquisette and net, and wearing dainty wristlets of pink carnations.

With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bride and groom cut the cake. At the close of the ceremony Mrs. Homer Grow played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Harry H. Dunning, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white taffeta with round neckline, short sleeves and fitted bodice and elbow length lace gloves matching the veil. She wore a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Her fingertip veil was edged with sweet-heart lace and was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet heart-shaped of white lace, white gladioli with an orchid center and tied with white satin ribbons.

Miss Barbara Plumb was maid of honor and was lovely in a full-length gown of pink marquisette. She carried a nosegay of pink gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elva Green and Miss Shirley Butler, who wore gowns of delicate pink and carried nosegays of white gladioli.

The little flower girls were Nancy Cyrus and Kathie Oakley, dressed in floor length gowns of white dotted pink nylon, and carried dainty bouquets of small mixed flowers.

parlors. The bride's table and serving table were covered with beautiful lace cloths. A three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom standing under an archway of orange blossoms centered the bride's table, which was decorated with pink and white gladioli with white tapers. The bride and groom cut the cake which was served to the guests by the bride's mother, Mrs. Harry Patrick, assisted by the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Dunning; maternal aunt, Mrs. Marie Huppertz, and the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. C. P. Garrett. Mrs. Essie Olson and Mrs. Mabel Wilson, assisted by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Cecil E. Garrett, Mrs. George Frew and Mrs. Mabel Harness, served the nunch from two crystal punch bowls. Mrs. George Frew and Mrs. Mabel Harness had charge of the table decorations. Miss Abbie Moore had charge of the guest book. Mrs. W. E. Smith, cousin of the bridegroom, had charge of the gift book.

For traveling, the bride chose a brown wool crepe suit with white accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. Following a honeymoon to Klamath Falls, Oregon, Clear Lake, California, San Francisco, Southern California and back the Coast highway, the couple are now at home at 812 South Main street.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Harriet Dunning, grandmother of the bride, and Reynolds Dunning, uncle of the bride, both of Lakeview, Oregon; Mrs. Marie Huppertz of Eureka, California, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Daisy Miles and Mrs. Marie Riddell of Ada, Oregon, both maternal aunts of the bride; Leo Dunning of San Francisco, brother of the bride; Bobby St. Clair of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Garrett of Lookingglass, and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wilson, Glengary.

The bride is senior vice-president of Daughters of Union Veterans, Florence Nightingale Tent, No. 15. She has been employed at Carr's Variety Store for the past two years. She is in the Senior class at Roseburg High School where she will continue her studies.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Castlemont High School at Oakland, California. He was a corporal in the U. S. Marine Corps, serving two years in the South Pacific. He participated in action on Okinawa and occupation of China. He is now employed at Henninger's Mart No. 2.

PEARL PIN CEREMONY HELD BY SORORITY ON FRIDAY EVENING

Friday, September 5, Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority held their pearl pin ceremony for its charter members.
