Marry by Candlelight, August 29

Mrs. Donald O'Neill.

All white gladioli in huge basket arrangements and tall candelabra holding white cathedral candles formed the impressive setting for the beautiful wedding of Miss Betty Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Wilson and Ryce Wilson of Roseburg and Donald O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neill, also of this city, at the First Presbyterian Church the evening of August 29. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive ceremony at eight o'clock in the presence of 250 relatives and friends of the couple.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Homer Grow played softly on the pipe organ. The altar candles were lighted by Miss Gerry Fett and Miss Jean Turner, who wore identical gowns of pink marquisette and wristlets of white gladioli blossoms.

Preceding the nuptials, Mrs. Oscar Carlson of Eugene, a cousin of the bride, sang, "I Love Thee" and "Because," followed by Mrs. Grow playing the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to advance to the altar. Midway in the service, Mrs. Carlson sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, a lovely brunette, was beautiful in a floor length gown of white marquisette over white slipper satin fashioned en train. The long bodice, yoke line and at wrist bands were outlined with embroidered medallions. Her veil, edged with lace and three-quarter length, was held in place with a Mary Queen of Scots cap. She carried a Cascade bouquet of Rubrum lilies and stephanotis arranged with a Maline heart and white satin bows and streamers. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Miss Phyllis Hinsdale, maid of honor, wore a gown of lavender marquisette fashioned with a deep yoke with ruffle and full skirt. Her picture hat was of starched lace with matching mitts and she carried a cascade bouquet of lavender asters and yellow gladioli.

Miss Shirley Carter, of Chico, Calif.; Miss Ruth Anne Ruhl, of Seattle; Miss Jean Erno and Mrs. Lawrence Wiley, of Roseburg, were bridesmaids, and wore identical gowns of green marquisette fashioned to match the maid of honor's. They wore white starched-lace picture hats and matching mitts and carried cascade bouquets of lavender asters and pastel-colored gladioli.

Bill Schultz of Roseburg was best man and Clifford Wilson of Myrtle Point, a cousin of the bride; Jack Horn, Bill Turner and Ernie Hodson were ushers.

The bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother both wore ensembles of burgandy wine-color with corsages of white gladioli blossoms.

A reception followed at the lovely Chapel of the Roses. The bride's table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth (a wedding gift to the couple) and centered with a bouquet of white roses, gardenias and ferns, flanked by tall white tapered in double holders. The four-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by the bride couple and served by Mrs. Earl Wiley, assisted by Mrs. Albert McCell. Mrs. Ward Cummings, Sr., presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. L. L. Powers had charge of the gifts with Miss Marda Jean Montgomery in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Oscar Carlson had charge of the reception.

For traveling the bride chose a gray-colored suit fashioned with the new full-type sleeves. She wore a tiny black hat trimmed in pink. Her gloves were pink and her other accessories were black. Her corsage was of Rubrum lilies and stephanotis. Following a honeymoon to points north, the couple will reside in Corvallis at 434 South 11th Street.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and attended Napa Junior College at Napa, Calif. She has been employed at Bob's Music Shop since returning here. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School. He served in the U. S. Air Forces and is now a sophomore in the school of forestry at Oregon State College.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Miss Merina Maddux, of Napa, Calif.; William Frederick and Shirley Carter of Chico, Calif.; Mrs. E. A. Koeller of Dunsmuir, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilder and son, George, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Tait and daughter, Nancy, of Pasadena, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wilson and son, Clifford, of Myrtle Point; Mrs. Jerry Eshoo of Oakland, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carlson and son, Edwin, and daughter, Mary Esther, of Eugene.
