Miss Oregon—Jo Ann Amorde.

The residents of Douglas County are most cordially invited to attend a homecoming reception honoring Miss Oregon, Jo Ann Amorde, Friday night, October 10, to be held from eight to ten o'clock at the Elks Temple and to be sponsored by the women's civic social clubs.

Clubs to act as hostesses for the affair include: Business and Professional Women's Club, Lady Elks, Roseburg Woman's Club, Junior Woman's Club, Lady Lions, Sutherland Associated Business Women's Club, Zonta Club, Rotary Annex, Jay Cettes and American Legion.

Mrs. Alvin Helgeson, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, is acting as general chairman of the affair, which promises to be one of the largest social events of the season. All committees are working hard to make the affair not only successful, but enjoyable to everyone attending.

Miss Oregon won the honor of being one of 15 of the most outstanding girls in the 1947 Atlantic City beauty pageant and received a $1000 scholarship as her award. She has been most gracious to hundreds of interviewers and those demanding on her time. In return for her wonderful cooperation with all organizations and the people of the state, the committees in charge are urging everyone to attend the homecoming affair Friday night to pay tribute to Miss Amorde.

Background music for the affair will be played by Mrs. Frances Lintoff, guest soloist for the affair will be Mary Cooper of Sutherland, vocalist, who will be accompanied by Mrs. H. Richard Nerbas.

MELROSE UNIT TO MEET ON FRIDAY

The Melrose Unit of Home Makers Extension service will hold its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. E. R. Penn on the River road, Friday, October 10, beginning at 11 A.M. A potluck dinner will be served at noon and everyone attending has been asked to bring their own table service.

The topic for the day will be "Color in the Home" with Miss Dorothea Parker, home demonstration agent, in charge. All ladies of the Melrose vicinity are most cordially invited to attend.

TRIANGLE CLUB TO MEET WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Triangle Club will meet Wednesday evening, October 8, at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. Fay Jensen at 1246 North Jackson street with Gladys Frenette and Lela Kuykendall as co-hostesses. All Pythian Sisters are cordially invited.
