The Women's Council of the First Christian Church met at the lovely new home of Mrs. J. L. Sanders on the Calkins Road Friday.

At a short meeting of the Ladies Aid it was voted to secure a Christian flag to be displayed on the church rostrum beside the United States flag recently purchased.

After a brief business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Emma Beckley, at which time the roll call was responded to with Scripture or an item from the World Call, Mrs. Elsie Coffell presented the Missionary program on "The Medical Program for Missions in India." The highlight was a recording of a small orphan girl finding safety and friends in the hospital, and another recording "The Robber Boy" which disclosed the fact that one caste of India are trained robbers who develop a pride in their endeavors. Mrs. Marguerite Munson in addition presented a very interesting article from the National Geographic magazine setting forth some of the habits and customs of the less known tribes.

The Council will meet next in the parlors of the Christian Church October 24th at 12:00 noon with a potluck luncheon, followed by a program of unusual interest. Roll call will be answered with names of Missionaries now on the field. A most cordial invitation to all friends is extended.
