Marry at Candlelight Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. James Sims

Miss Norma Jean Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gregory, Melrose Route, Roseburg, became the bride of James Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sims of Winston, at a very beautiful candlelight ceremony at three o'clock Sunday, October 5, at the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the nuptials in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

White and orchid gladioli and red roses formed the altar bouquets, which were flanked by candelabra holding tall white tapers. The candles were lighted by Miss Shirley Sims, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a gown of yellow eyelid material.

Mrs. Frances Lintott played softly on the pipe organ as the guests assembled and accompanied Ralph Church, who sang, "Come Alone" and "Love You Truly," after which she played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to advance to the altar. At the close of the ceremony, she played Mendelssohn's Wedding Recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a Princess style gown of white satin, fashioned with long fitted sleeves and a net yoke outlined with seed pearls. Her veil of illusion was finger-tip in length and she carried a shower bouquet of a dozen gardenias.

Miss Bernice Wilson, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of aqua marquette and carried a bouquet of red carnations. Miss Wilma Melton, Miss Dolly Henry and Mrs. Richard Buswell were bridesmaids and wore gowns of pastel guests invited to play in weekly golf tournament at club course under direction of Art Pearson, pro.

HOUSEHOLDERS CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY IN SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Householder former residents of Roseburg for many years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday at a reception at the home of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Irwin at 607 North Commercial street in Salem. Friends were invited to call between three and six o'clock.

The couple was married in Lebanon, October 6, 1897, by the Rev. C. R. Lamar. In 1918 they moved to Roseburg and in 1942 moved to Salem, where Mr. Householder has been employed at Bishop's.

Two of their five children, Mrs. Lewis Howe and Mrs. P. C. Hickey of Portland, are living and were in Salem for the affair. The Householders have eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The table was centered with a large wedding cake arranged around which was gold-colored tulle, gold and white flowers and gold candles.

Little Larry Hickey, grandchild, greeted the guests at the door. Mr. and Mrs. Householder and their two daughters informally received the guests.

Mrs. E. A. Lovell and Mrs. Ed Lovell, sisters-in-law of Mrs. Householder, were in charge of the dining room. Mrs. M. Hogan, Portland, Mrs. William Pickens, Lebanon; Mrs. V. R. Buckingham, Roseburg; and Mrs. Jack Elletts, Salem, alternated at the urns.

Mrs. Frank Maier, Mrs. Householder's sister, and Mrs. W. W. Stiller assisted about the rooms and Mrs. H. A. Lovell had charge of the guest book. Mr. Buckingham is a sister of Mr. Householder and attended the wedding 50 years ago.

Serving were Donna Mae Howe, Sharon Hickey, Betty Platchley, Delores Dickey and Pauline Morrow.

MR. WILLIAM MACHEN HONORED AT SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harth and William Machen entertained at a very delightful eight o'clock turkey dinner and surprise party Saturday evening in the private dining room of Turn Around Inn to compliment the latter's wife on her birthday.

A low bowl of red dahlias flanked by candelabra holding tall white tapers graced the beautifully appointed table. Lovely gifts, a corsage and a beautifully decorated and lighted birthday cake were presented to Mrs. Machen.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William Machen, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harth, Mr. and Mrs. H. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Broadus, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Armon.

Following the dinner, the group went to the attractive Harth home on East Cass street. Cards were in play during the social hour with Mrs. Broadus winning the high score for the bridge game and Mrs. Machen winning the second high score.
