Bride

Mrs. Myron Dale Payne.

YONCALLA—In a lovely church wedding Wednesday, Oct. 22nd, at 8 o'clock, Miss Vera Highley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Highley, became the bride of Myron Dale Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Payne, all of Yoncalla.

The impressive single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred Hunt, pastor of the Drain-Yoncalla Methodist Church, in the presence of seventy-five relatives and friends. At the altar were large baskets of tiny white chrysanthemums and pink carnations. A long bouquet of similar flowers was on the piano. Fall greenery also added to the attractiveness of the altar. Two large candelabra, were lighted by Miss Lola Highley, sister of the bride and Miss Marilyn Payne, sister of the groom, dressed in floor length blue dotted swiss dresses.

Proceeding the nuptial rites, Mrs. Fred Hunt, vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. George Edes, pianist, provided beautiful music. Mrs. Hunt's numbers were "End of a Perfect Day" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Edes also played the wedding marches.

The attractive bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely wedding gown of white brocade organza, made with a round yoke, and tiny buttons down the back, to the large bustle at the waistline. Her sleeves were short puffed sleeves, and she wore long white mitts. Her finger length veil was edged with white lace, and held in place with a crown of crystals. She carried a white Bible, topped with a large orchid and frezias and silver streamers.

Miss Shirley Highley, was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a tiptoe length gown of pale blue tulle, and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of daisies and pink carnations, with long blue streamers. Miss Radine Payne, sister of the groom was bridesmaid. She wore a pale blue net gown, and carried a nosegay of white and pink carnations, and white streamers. Little Vivian Payne, sister of the groom, in a tiptoe length dress of pink dotted swiss, scattered rose petals in front of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress, and dark hat and a corsage of gardenias. The bride's grandmother also wore a dark dress and gardenia corsage. The groom's mother wore a black dress trimmed with colored sequences and a corsage of gardenias.

Kenneth Means, uncle of the bride, was best man and ushers were Lloyd and Leland Means, both uncles of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Epworth hall of the church. Large bouquets of pink carnations and white chrysanthemums were used in decorating the room. The mantle was banked with fall greenery, decorated by Mrs. W. J. Ladd and Mrs. Avery Lasswell. Following the traditional first cut by the bride and groom, the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was served by Mrs. W. J. Ladd, Mrs. Ernest Warner, Miss Etta Weise had charge of the guest book.

The bride is a popular Yoncalla girl, having attended both grade and high schools, graduating from high school with the class of '37. The groom attended school in North Platt, Nebraska, before moving to Yoncalla a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne will be at home to their many friends at their new home, which they just built, about two miles north of town, after Nov. 1.

Those present at the wedding reception were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Highley, Shirley and Lola Highley, Mr. and Mrs. John Payne, Marilyn, Radine and Vivian Payne, Mrs. Bert Means, Lloyd Means, Kenneth Means, Mrs. H. R. Gelder, Ross, Keith and Bruce Gelder, Mrs. Chas. Johnson, Mrs. W. G. Robertson, W. G. COUPLE MARRY AT SUTHERLIN METHODIST CHURCH, OCTOBER 26

The wedding service of Wayne Summerfield Salmons and Billie Vonne Grimes took place at the Sutherlin Methodist Church Sunday, October 26th at one o'clock with Rev. B. Cotton, pastor of the church officiating.

Archie Amode played the piano prelude while the seven branched candelabra were lighted by the two ushers, Robert Burdette and Miss Doris Benner. Miss Beverly Page sang two solos, "I Love You" and "Always."

The procession, Lohengrin's "Wedding March" was led by the two ushers, followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Jo Ann Amode (Miss Oregon), the matron of honor, Mrs. Lola Rehwalt, the bride and her father, William Grimes. The line from the vestry included Rev. Mr. Cotton, the groom, and Stratton Hem-bree as best man.

The ceremony used was the new ring ceremony of the United Methodist Church. It was followed by the singing of the "Lord's Prayer," by Miss Pope.

Following the service a reception was held in the church basement, accompanied with coffee and cake, served by the ladies of the Women's Society of Christian Service. Pictures of the bridal party were taken by the Bishop's Moderne Studio in Roseburg.
