Marry at Impressive Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Knudtson.

An oblong arrangement of white and orchid chrysanthemums graced the altar and was flanked by huge flower-baskets of matching bouquets and tall white cathedral candles in candelabra for the wedding of Miss Frances Hutchinson and James O. Knudtson, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Knudtson of Roseburg, Saturday, October 25. Rev. Kenneth W. Knox, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony at eight o'clock in the morning in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

Mrs. Gordon Stewart, attired in a gray pin-stripe suit, played softly on the organ as the guests assembled. Miss Harriet Catherine Booth, dressed in pale blue, lighted the altar candles. Mrs. Stewart accompanied Mrs. Knudtson, who wore a brown crepe dress trimmed in gold, who charmingly sang "O, Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride was very lovely in a light gray-blue tailored suit with black accessories and black halo hat. Her corsage was of pink roses and gardenias. Mrs. Robert Kenny of Sutherlin, cousin of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and wore a light blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations and yellow roses. Alan Knudtson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of black trimmed in black lace. She wore a brown fur coat with brown hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Following the ceremony, the couple left for points south on their honeymoon. Upon their return to Roseburg they will be at home to their friends at 247 Chadwick street.

Both the bride and bridegroom have many friends in Roseburg. The bride received her schooling in Grants Pass and the bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School. For the last several years she has been employed at Chapman's Drug Store. The bridegroom served two years with the U. S. Navy and following his discharge, has been associated in business with his father in operating Knudtson's Jewelry Store.
